-- New Move To Hold Food Prices Down --

President Will Ask Farm Parity Freeze

Administration Wants Subsidies On Some Imports, Including Coffee; Tighter Credit

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Legislators said Wednesday night the Truman administration plans to ask congress Thursday for authority to put a year-at-a-time freeze on farm parity prices in a new move to hold food costs down.

Sen. Maybank (D-S.C.), who attended a meeting Wednesday with President Truman and his top mobilization command, said the administration also will ask:

1—Tighter rent controls, including ceilings on rents for commercial property.

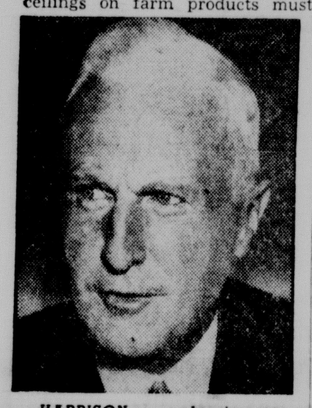
2—Subsidies on some imports, perhaps including coffee (subsidies are payments by the government of part of the cost in order to hold down the retail price to consumers.)

3—"Probably" some new restrictions on credit, in addition to the installment buying and other curbs already in force.

SPECIAL MESSAGE.

Such new anti-inflation powers will be asked by the president in a special message proposing extension of the defense production act, which expires in June. It is under this law that the government has imposed wage and price controls and many other economic curbs in the past year.

At present, the law says price ceilings on farm products must not be fixed below parity—a shifting price that rises and falls with the cost of things farmers have to buy.



HARRISON . . . leaving production post.

These parity figures are fixed monthly. Maybank said that Mr. Truman now proposes to set a parity price at the beginning of a crop year and keep it there for the whole of that year.

Thus if the parity price of wheat, for example, were set at $2.50 a bushel price officials could impose a $2.50 ceiling and wheat couldn't legally be sold for more than that during the next 12 months.

If the parity price should work out to $2.60, for instance, at the end of the year, then the ceiling would have to be raised.

OTHER ORDERS SOON.

Three further orders to be issued soon will cover machinery, cotton textiles and wearing apparel including shoes.

In another mobilization development Wednesday, W. H. Harrison resigned as defense production chief, reporting to the president that the rearmament program is well started and making "sound progress."

Harrison said there are "compelling personal reasons" for his resignation, effective May 1. He will return to the presidency of the International Telephone & Telegraph Corp.

Mr. Truman expressed "warm thanks for a job well done" in a letter to Harrison, who took the top production job eight months ago to organize the program.

'All-Out' Probe Is Requested

Republicans Want To Reopen Yalta Confab

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The senate republican policy committee called Wednesday for an "all-out" investigation of foreign and military policies linked with the ouster of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Chairman Robert Taft (R-O.) told reporters the GOP group wants an inquiry into politics as far back as the 1945 Yalta conference, with special emphasis on what he called the administration's "encouragement of Chinese communists."

To get such an inquiry, Taft said, the republicans will watch developments in hearings to be opened May 3 by the senate armed services and foreign relations committees.

Doug First Witness

MacArthur will be the first witness.

Senator Russell (D-Ga.), chairman of the two-committee inquiry, said earlier that the committee has asked the Pentagon for documents bearing on the Truman-MacArthur controversy. Russell said all the information sought will be made available.

He added that he probably will ask the state department for some documents, but has not yet determined which ones.

MacArthur, in his speech to congress last week, claimed his proposals for fighting the Chinese communists had the backing of the joint chiefs of staff.

O'Neill Man Dies In Crash

O'NEILL, Neb.—(AP(—Russell Graham, about 24, of O'Neill was fatally injured Wednesday night when his car overturned on U.S. highway 20-275 two miles east of here.

Graham was alone in the car. Holt county sheriff Leo S. Tomjack said apparently Graham lost control of the car.

The death brought to 89 the number of traffic deaths in Nebraska this year. There had been 62 on this date a year ago.

$10,000 Insurance Now Free To GIs

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman signed into law Wednesday a measure giving $10,000 death benefits without cost to all service men.

The measure, while providing the insurance to present members of the armed forces, takes away the privilege former service men have had to obtain new government insurance policies.

New insurance policies for veterans will be available only to men leaving service after June 27, 1950, the veterans administration explained.

Highway Bill Is Sent To General File

Commission Plan Is One Of Amendments

BY ARCH DONOVAN
(Star Staff Writer)

The public works committee, after approving several more amendments to LB 2 Wednesday, sent the bill to general file. The bill as introduced by Sen. Arthur Carmody provided for a state highway commission.

As the measure goes to the floor of the legislature, it would establish a commission of one member from each congressional district and a member-at-large, all appointed by the governor. The department would continue to be in two sections, roads and irrigation.

The commission would appoint the highway engineer and in addition a $9,000 a year business manager which was included in another bill by Sen. Hal Bridenbaugh.

The motor vehicle division would be transferred to the department of the state tax commissioner. It is understood that the governor sought to have it entirely separate, but that opposition was expressed to a new agency being established independent of some department.

The state safety patrol will be under the direction of the governor. Sen. Otto Prohs, chairman of the committee, says that is provided in present law but that amendments will make it more specific.

While the bill and its host of amendments was voted out of committee, it was not with enthusiasm. Some members of the committee were frank in expressing personal opposition to different features, but called attention to the fact that the winners of the referendum election last fall had advocated the features in the bill.

The governor under the new proposal would still have control over the highways through appointment of the commission, the same as he has at present through appointment of the state engineer.

State Engineer Fred Klietsch expressed favor for a commission to relieve the engineer from the "heat, pressure and abuse" that has been heaped on the department in recent years.

Management of the irrigation bureau, it is expected by committee members, would not be disturbed by the new setup.

Les Davies Dies Suddenly

Les Davies, long-time Lincoln golf pro, died suddenly late Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Davies was found unconscious on a stairway landing at the DLD hotel, 112 South Seventeenth, where he had been living the past week. He was rushed to St. Elizabeth hospital and pronounced dead on arrival at 6:25 p. m.

Acting Coroner Les Hasson said Mr. Davies died of natural causes.

Mr. Davies was golf professional at the old Lincoln Country club at Seventh and Washington when he first came to Lincoln and later was pro at Eastridge Country club.

He is survived by a brother, Stanley, Omaha golf professional.

Omaha Man Is Stabbed

. . . During Holdup

OMAHA — (AP) — An Omaha pharmacist was stabbed in the back Wednesday by two holdup men, then was forced to give them the combination of the store safe from which the holdup pair took some $500.

He was reported in "fair" condition in a hospital Wednesday.

The holdup men accosted the pharmacist, Vernon Miller, 46, as he was locking the rear door of the Beaton Drug store at 40th and Farnam streets preparatory to closing the store.

Miller told police he did not realize he had been stabbed because the knife was so keen. He said the pair ordered him to open the safe and when he protested he did not know the combination, one of the pair, who said he had worked at the store, knocked him down breaking his glasses.

Miller was forced to dictate the combination of the safe while one burglar opened it. The men then took Miller downstairs and locked him in a storage room.

Miller had to break down the door and finally was able to reach the phone at 12:40 a.m.—about 25 minutes after the stabbing—and call police.

Det. Lt. Louis Andersen said Miller lost a considerable amount of blood from the wound in the right side of his back.

Bottled Gas Dealers' Bill Is Advanced

Amendment To Cut Powers Defeated

Dealers in bottled gas who own their containers won a first round victory in the legislature Wednesday when LB 476, which they advocated, was advanced on general file after defeat of an amendment by Sen. Ed Hoyt which would have sheared it of all but safety provisions.

Mayor Victor Anderson, who has led the lobby for the bill, was on the sidelines. His activities were mentioned by members of the lobby investigating committee a few days ago when questions were fired back and forth as to who had attended his dinners.

He is not registered with the secretary of state as a lobbyist for the bill and staff members explained that when he wanted to register they advised him it was unnecessary because he was not being paid.

Supporters of the bill stressed the safety provisions of the bill by enacting into law what is now only a regulation of the fire marshal. Opponents charge it was a special interest bill and "monopolistic."

One senator explained that the bill is supported by the state association consisting of about 100 larger dealers and opposed by the "independents" numbering about 60.

Also advanced was LB 528 to close the Valentine sub-station of the University of Nebraska now that Ft. Robinson is in operation. Sen. Cole opposed because of experiments on "X" disease at the station and urged it be retained at least two years. His was the only opposition.

In all the legislature advanced eight bills on general file, 10 on select file and three on final passage.

Spring Weather Due In Nebraska As Washout Ends

Rain clouds over Nebraska had apparently given up the attempt to wash the state away—at least for a while anyway.

A more conventional spring day was in store for Thursday, with partly cloudy skies and temperatures rising to 65 to 70 degrees.

Rain gave the state a good going over Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, with the Lincoln-Omaha area getting the most rainfall, nearly an inch, before stopping early Wednesday morning. A trace has been reported since then.

The rainfall was general throughout the state during the period, and in some spots the amount was fairly large.

There was no precipitation reported anywhere after 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, at which time representative figures included:

Enemy's Casualties In Five Days Exceed 25,000

Chinese Force New U.N. Pullbacks Toward Seoul; Hold Firm In Center

TOKYO—(Thursday)—(AP)—Chinese reds poured fresh troops into their western Korea offensive today and forced new allied withdrawals toward Seoul along a 30-mile sector.

The communists captured Munsan, 21 miles northwest of Seoul. Munsan is 10 miles south of the 38th parallel on a main highway to Seoul.

An overrun allied unit was reported fighting its way out of a trap with the aid of tanks that made a rescue linkup. Details were lacking but a field dispatch reported the rescue effort was succeeding.

The five-day-old red offensive apparently had run out of steam in central Korea. And everywhere the reds were paying a terrific price.

DIE BY THOUSANDS

They lost 7,095 men in killed and wounded by ground action alone yesterday and 1,000 or more were cut down by allied planes—boosting the communist casualties well past 25,000 since the big offensive started Sunday.

Reinforced reds pounded their way seven miles south of the 38th parallel in the west. That put them within 20 miles of Seoul, war-ravaged capital already being deserted by civilians.

In the mountainous center, where the reds had blasted a gaping hole, fresh allied troops not only sealed it but dealt armored counter punches.

ROLI WITH PUNCH

Field dispatches today said there appeared to be no immediate threat of more red breakthroughs anywhere across the 100-mile front.

The allies were reported making planned withdrawals under cover of thunderous artillery barrages. This has been described by army officers as "rolling with the punch" every day since the reds first struck. But the reds kept coming, heedless of losses.

An estimated 18,000 reds were killed in three days—to noon Wednesday—by allied air and ground action.

FORCED TO REGROUP

A frontline officer expressed belief the Chinese vanguards of a 150,000-man force that made a central front breakthrough had been forced to stop and regroup after being "hurt very badly" Tuesday.

The reds had driven a wedge into allied lines in the area northwest of Chunchon. Chunchon is 12 miles northeast of Kapyong and eight air miles south of Parallel 38.

Artillery barrages supporting the allied counter blows in that sector were described as some of the heaviest of the Korean conflict.

Van Fleet Confident

The U.N. forces counter-attacked as Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet told his troops "in three days (you) have proven your superiority" over the estimated 400,000 reds committed to the big counter offensive.

In Washington, the defense department announced U.S. combat casualties in Korea through April 20 since the June 25 outbreak of the war had climbed to 61,744—of whom 9,380 were listed as killed. The figure was an increase of 969 over the preceding week.

Chinese and Korean red casualties since the war began have been estimated at nearly 900,000—and that was before the big red counter offensive exploded Sunday night.

43 Dead In Plane Collision

Navy Training Plane, Commercial Transport Crash Near Key West

KEY WEST, Fla.—(AP)—A big Cuban airliner and a small United States navy plane collided with explosive force over Key West Wednesday and spun into the sea, carrying 43 people to their deaths.

Water splashed 50 feet into the air as the transport, with 34 passengers and five crewmen, nosed-dived with a terrific bang into 20 feet of water.

The navy plane went to pieces as it fell and crashed into the ocean two miles west of the transport. It carried a four-man crew.

Hundreds of sun bathers saw the planes meet at 4,000 feet altitude with a noise that resembled an explosion. Eyewitnesses at first believed that the navy plane had blown up while flying alongside the liner.

Bound for Havana

The four-engined transport, operated by Compania Cubana de Aviacion, left Miami for Havana at 10:03 a.m. (C.S.T.) bound for Havana with a passenger load that included 25 Americans. The collision occurred about 10:45 a.m.

At 4 p.m., Lt. Clemons C. Pearson, commander of the coast guard station here, said 19 bodies had been recovered, but only nine identified.

Most of the bodies were recovered by navy divers. After 19 had been sent ashore, diving operations were halted and efforts were started to raise the wreckage of the big plane to the surface.

The navy plane fell immediately after ramming the airliner, but the big plane staggered along on a level course about 50 seconds. In its nose dive, it headed directly toward a group of tourist cottages on the south beach. Then it veered to the left and dropped into the water 1,200 yards offshore

Avoids Hitting Batters.

Frank Rogers, one of the eyewitnesses, said it appeared that the pilot wrestled the plane away from the beach to avoid hitting the crowds of sun bathers.

Pan-American World Airways, which Compania Cubana de Aviacion is affiliated, reported it was the first accident on the Cuban airline in more than 17 years of operation.

The commercial plane fell just offshore from the "Little White House," where President Truman frequently vacations. He spent three weeks here last month.

Big Missouri Atomic Plant Is Rumored

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — The Post-Dispatch reported Wednesday the government is preparing to build a huge atomic energy plant at Weldon Spring, Mo.

Without disclosing its sources, the newspaper said materials used in making the atomic bomb will be manufactured by a new method at the big plant.

Mark Clark May Become UCLA Head

LOS ANGELES—(INS)— The Los Angeles Herald and Express said Wednesday it had learned Gen. Mark W. Clark, commander of the army ground forces would retire this summer and become first chancellor of the University of California at Los Angeles.

Mark Clark

The newspaper said preliminary moves have already been made to place the 54-year-old general in the newly created and virtually autonomous post at UCLA.

Gen. Clark's most recent Pacific coast activity was in 1947-48 when he was commander of the Sixth army, with headquarters at San Francisco. He left that post in September, 1949, to become chief of army field forces.

Appraisal Board Bill Is Held Over

. . . Due Amendments

Need of a tax appraisal board for Lancaster county was discussed before the legislature Wednesday by Sen. Thomas Adams, but because of amendments he offered the bill was laid over.

Adams explained that the county has one valuation, the city another and that the sale price makes a third. He said that he had had some checks made and found one property assessed at 7 per cent of the selling price.

He cited another example of a property selling for $900 which was assessed by the county at $150 and the city at $500. Another selling for $35,000, he said was assessed by the county at $6,575 and the city at $7,700. Another $65,000 sale, he asserted, had a county assessment of $50,600 and the city $60,300.

Answering the plea of the previous day made by Sen. Robert McNutt, who withdrew as an introducer, that the present county assessor be given a chance, Adams said that he would not live long enough to examine each piece of property in the county.

Adams pointed out that the appraisal board would be fact-finding only with the assessor being given a chance to change it and the taxpayer a chance to appeal. He insisted the assessor would have to employ the same type of people if he did a comparable job.

The question seems to be, Adams said, whether the governor pick the board, as is used successfully in Douglas county, or whether the county board make the selection.

Babies Born Same Day, Same Name, But Not Related

BY CHARLES MOHR
(Star Staff Writer)

Mrs. Gartner met Mrs. Gartner for the first time Wednesday afternoon.

Their sons are old buddies though. They're shared the same nursery at Bryan Memorial hospital since Sunday.

Steven Frank, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Gartner of 436 South Twenty-fourth, and Clark Alton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Herman Gartner of Unadilla were both born at the hospital that day.

The two families are not related and had never known each other until biological coincidence and a photographer brought them together.

Are the two young mothers worried about a mixup in the nursery where both boys' cribs are marked merely "Gartner?"

"No, we both know our babies," the two mothers agreed with a smile.

Steve, whose father is a chiodist, is almost 19 hours older than Clark; but the latter boy tips the scales at 7 pounds, 5 ounces, about 8 ounces heavier than Steve.

Clark's mother and father have operated a farm near Unadilla since their marriage less than two years ago. The blue-eyed baby is their first child.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gartner came to Lincoln about a year and a half ago following his graduation from the San Francisco College of Chiropody. Steven, also blue-eyed, has an older sister, Karen.

THAT'S A LOVELY BABY MRS. GARTNER—Both smiling mothers would agree to that. The two husky boys, who have the same last name but aren't related, were born Sunday at Bryan Memorial hospital. Their mothers met for the first time Wednesday. Left to right are Mrs. Alton Herman Gartner and Clark of Unadilla and Mrs. Kenneth Look Gartner and Steven of 436 South Twenty-fourth. (Star Photo.)

Nursery attendants said that neither baby cries much, both sleep like logs and Steve, the city boy, has the heartier appetite.

Dr. McLeay To Receive 50-Year Pin

A Lincoln doctor will be among nine honored by the Nebraska State Medical association next week for 50 years of continuous practice. The group will be feted at the annual convention banquet in Omaha Wednesday evening, May 2.

Dr. H. L. McLeay, psychiatrist at the Lincoln state hospital, after half a century of service, has "no other plans" toward retirement.

"I'll probably spend my last days here," the 74-year-old physician remarked.

Dr. McLeay is a native of Toronto, Canada and received his medical education there. He practiced there a short time after graduating.

A veteran of World war I, during which he served in the Candian army, Dr. McLeay was in general practice in Logan county for some time.

He spent 15 years of his practice in Omaha as an X-ray and radium specialist.

The past ten years have seen him engaged in psychiatry at the state hospital here.

Dr. McLeay will be presented a pin symbolic of his long service by the Nebraska State Medical association.

Eight other Nebraska doctors will also be honored. They are: Dr. W. P. Haney, Dr. J. W. Hellwig, Dr. John R. Nilsson and Dr. G. Alexander Young, all of Omaha; Dr. J. W. Brendel, Avoca; Dr. Hamilton Morrow, Fremont; Dr. George B. Dent, North Platte, and Dr. W. J. Douglas, Atkinson.

'Korea Is Meatgrinder For The U.S.'

Gromyko Sprays Venom At Meet

PARIS — (INS) — Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko attacked western nations Wednesday night in the Big Four deputies meeting and said Korea has become "a meatgrinder for American soldiers and their satellites."

Gromyko wandered off into what western informants said was a "propaganda show" that lasted three hours and 15 minutes.

In discussing Korea the Russian said "there won't be enough crosses for soldiers of the interventionist forces" if they remain. The "interventionist" label is what the Russians put on U. N. forces in Korea.

Go Home

Gromyko said "the remedy for the Korea war is for the interventionists to pull out and go home."

Western delegates, who have been trying since March 5 to agree with Russia on an agenda for a proposed Big Four foreign ministers' conference, said Gromyko's "insulting banalities" were "not worth the dignity of a reply."

Informants suspect Gromyko's tactics reflect a wish to stall in the hope that the new red offensive in Korea might be successful, causing a softening of the western attitude.

Dedication For Immanuel Lutheran

Prominent leaders of the Missouri synod of the Lutheran church will speak Sunday at dedication services of the Immanuel Lutheran church, Eleventh and Plum.

Dr. Lewis Spitz, associate editor of the Lutheran Witness will address the congregation at the 10:30 a.m. service, and Dr. Herman Harms, first vice president of the church, will deliver the sermon in the afternoon service, beginning at 2:30 p.m.

From 3:30 until 6 p.m., the congregation will have open house for all visitors. Church ladies will serve refreshments, and Ivan Sunderman, organist, will provide appropriate music.

Prof. Theodore Stelzer of Concordia Teachers college, Seward, will present a sacred concert at 7:30 p.m.

The Immanuel Lutheran church is built according to Gothic lines with Romanesque windows at a cost of $96,000 including all furnishings and equipment.

The seating capacity of the nave, including the balcony is 375. The auditorium has been divided into eight Sunday school rooms by removable partitions, and other rooms are available for Sunday school.

Kosmet Klub's Production Is An Unqualified Success

BY RAY SCHAUMBURG

Opening night for an aisle-sitter or habitual theater-goer is always a thrill. So we went to the Kosmet Klub production of the musical "Good News" anticipating an evening of good entertainment.

Nothing spectacular, mind you, just good entertainment.

But the Thursday night show was somehting beyond expectations. The slightly cynical jazz-age show was an unqualified success.

This group of students cannot be commended enough for the fine work they did in putting the show together. Everyone involved acquitted him or herself with something close to professional aplomb.

A special word of praise should go to Dallas Williams for his fine job of directing the show.

Miss Szanne Koehler sang the feminine lead of Constance Lane. Her singing left very little to be desired, but her acting—particularly in the first act—was a trifle too strained. Opening night itself was undobtedly the reason for her slight stiffness. In the second act, Miss Koehler loosened-up and played the role with much more ease.

Helmur Sienknecht, singing the male lead of Tom Marlowe, came "over the footlights" from the start of the show. Occasionally, he too, suffered from too much restraint, but his singing was all that could be demanded.

Of the rest of the fine cast, outstanding were Jack Chedester as Bobby Randall, who superbly clowning his way through the show, Dick Carson as the cynical, witty trainer, "Pooch" Kearney, and Lois Nelson as Babe O'Day, a typical flapper.

Miss Nelson as Babe O'Day was a combination of Sophie Tucker and Gertrude Lawrence, with a dash of Betty Davis thrown in. Betty Ann Lester, who played the role of Flo, another of the flapper genere, played her part to the hilt. Her acting, facial expressions, her spirit and abandon were outstanding among supporting members of the cast.

Joe Feeney, John Moran and Robert Rupert as Jim, Pete and Ben, respectively, staggered their tipsy way through the show as the Glee Club trio who were perpetually "under the influence."

Special mention should go to Patsy Dutton for her comical and highly superior traveler act after the second scene of act two. Miss Dutton "sang" two "boop-ee-do" songs while a record, played backstage did the actual work. Miss Dutton's timing was flawless, her acting, as she "mouthed" the words, was nothing short of hilarious.

All the cast deserve accolades for their splendid work, but the biggest round of applause rightly belongs to the members of the entire production. From the property manager to the director, all did a wonderful piece of work.

All who miss the three night show are missing some of the the finest entertainment Lincoln has seen in a long time. The production staff, the business staff and the entire cast can be very proud of a production little short of the professional level.

Rev. Reinert will speak at the convention banquet Sunday evening, and Green will speak at a luncheon honoring past state deputies on Monday niin.

Monday's program will begin with a solemn pontifical mass in the Lincoln cathedral to be celebrated by the Most Rev. Louis B. Kucera, D. D. Bishop of Lincoln. Officers of the mass will be various other well known Catholic clergymen.

The state council will hold its business session Monday morning.

Morse Asks Butler For Vandenberg's Seat On Committee

WASHINGTON— (AP) —Sen. Wayne Morse (R-Ore.) Wednesday renewed his fight for a seat on the senate foreign relations committee.

In a letter to Sen. Hugh Butler (R-Neb.), chairman of the republican committee on committees, Morse asked that he be named to fill the vacancy created by the death of Sen. Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan.

Morse pointed to his long-standing contention that a west coast republican should be named to the committee. He said he felt it impossible to "justify appointing another senator from either the midwest or east coast to the foreign relaions committee."

Neurotic Leaders No Answer to Peace

By J. Gordon Roberts

In conclusion, of the series on Four Paths to Peace, let us consider again the child forced to accept, without understanding, the restrictions of an adult society which are foreign to his childish nature. Quite humanly, in adult life he may attempt to force the same restrictions upon others.

In adult life, society becomes the mother-figure and any non-acceptance of the mores of his society becomes an affront to his mother, requiring punitive action.

Small wonder that with such environmental background, many brilliant men, without even considering maturity, suggest force in some form as the answer to peace. Yet power in the control of neurotic leaders becomes worse as it becomes intensified.

Love and understanding constitute the only lasting answer. Now is the time to start preparing the next generation for peace.

Beschorner Asks Balance Of Power

The United States can exist with communism only as long as there is a balance of power completely "equal on both sides," Gustav F. Beschorner, Lincoln accountant and former head of the internal revenue bureau, said Wednesday night.

Beschorner, who was a welfare director for the American relief administration which in 1922 aided Russia during a period of famine and drouth, spoke to the Lancaster young democrats at the YMCA.

He told the young democrats that communism within the United States doesn't constitute "too great a threat.'

The greatest block to the expansion of communism, he added, is enlightment that includes education of the people. A government should also afford its people a decent system of social welfare that includes equal opportunity for all citizens.

Speaking on socialism in Great Britain, Beschorner explained it "might have worked had it not gone so fast." He said incentives must be kept up, but also that something has to be done for the needy who cannot afford proper medical care.

Beschorner said he had to wait 16 years before he could speak his mind about communism. He said he had to keep his mouth shut because he worked for the government. After he had retired, he said ,that's when he went to work to get a few things off his mind.

Mississippi Flood Waters On The Wane

(By the Associated Press.)

The upper Mississippi river flood—the worst in more than 70 years in some places—appeared definitely on the wane Wednesday.

Dikes held at all strategic areas in Iowa, Illinois and Missouri. The river began receding slightly in pper Iowa Iowa and Illinois. Downstream at Davenport, Ia., and Rock Island, Ill., the crest arrived almost a foot below earlier expectations. This relieved the threat further downstream in Missouri and Illinois.

British-Powered MIGs Claim Is Doubted By A.F.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Brown (R-Ohio) said Wednesday enemy MIG planes shot down in Korea have been powered by jet engines made in Great Britain.

During a house rules committee hearing on a bill to provide food aid for India, Brown said he was informed by a man on Gen. MacArthur's staff that every enemy MIG plane shot down and examined was found to have British-made jet engines. He did not further identify the source of his information.

The air force commented, "As far as is known, no MIG-15 aircraft shot down in Korea have been recovered by United Nations forces."

Genuine Sour Mash is your Key to True Bourbon Satisfaction

The key to the hospitable flavor of Old Fitzgerald is the unique Sour Mash manner in which it is made. Slowly distilled without pressure or haste, then patiently oak-ripened in open warehouses of our own design, Old Fitzgerald acquires all the full, rich flavor for which genuine Sour Mash bourbon is famed.

'A Triumph For A Policy'

There are so many facets to the current MacArthur-Truman debate. One minute it is military against military, raising the issue of one man's conception of victorious military strategy against the equally honest opinion of equally capable military leaders. Then it shifts from the military to the question of civilian authority.

On that score, Hyde Sweet wrote in his admirable "Kick Kolumn":

"I agree with Willard Archie, of the Shenandoah Sentinel, that it would be silly to push impeachment proceedings against the president on the basis of his discharge of General MacArthur. To let an emotional storm which swept the country destroy our national sense of balance is as bad for us as it is to maintain Mr. Truman in office in perpetuity. (Mr. Sweet had better be keerful. This editor was taken severely to task locally for an observation relating to the regretful possibilities of the emotional storm.) The president has a right under the constitution to remove any general. Let that fact sink in."

★

And after it sinks in, if it does, where do we go from there? On the road to Mandalay? Or are we out, feet first, to prove that Kipling was wrong—and that while East is East, and West is West, actually the two shall meet in world-shattering struggle on the plains of Red China, millions of men locked in battle, science lending its aid to a new global orgy of destruction? The one question shot in this direction over the telephone and by letter the most frequently boils down to this: "What is Far Eastern policy?" Before any answer can be given, the question is accompanied by a conclusion that we do not have and we never have had any policy since the fighting broke out in Korea.

★

We are fighting strictly a defensive war in Korea. We are not waging an offensive campaign in Korea. If, since last June, the free peoples of the world, led by the United States, reached a decision to wage an offensive war against communism, then possibly the place to strike was in Russia, more specifically against Moscow and the Kremlin, not in Korea.

★

Nothing in the record imparts popularity to defensive warfare. Right at this minute, General Ridgway, in supreme command, facing the threat, with the men under him, of the tide from the north, is pursuing the strategy of exacting ten casualties for every casualty suffered by the United Nations forces in Korea. That is the simplest explanation of the difference between defensive and offensive warfare, although it may leave a lot to be desired for complete understanding. We were told that at this time the United Nations' strength is at its peak covering the entire period of Korean hostilities since last June. That is poor comfort for mothers and fathers, or for brothers or sisters who anxiously watch dispatches for news of loved ones.

But suppose we move forward all the way to the Manchurian border, with the communist armies falling back. Where do we go from there? Suppose we do take advantage of Chiang's soldiers for guerrilla operations on the China coast, or on the fringes of the industrial sections of a vast country. Where do we go from there? Ahead of us, a modern military power, Japan, followed the retreating Chinese all the way back into the vast interior, although employing admittedly great air power, sea power for blockade, and magnificently equipped and seasoned foot soldiers, never obtained a decision. The more rapid the advance, the more rapid the Chinese retreat.

This merely is to say that up until now at least, Far Eastern policy has been to limit a war in the hope that action on the Korean peninsula will not blossom into a conflict engulfing the entire continent of Asia, with its hundreds of millions arrayed against us, the leader of the western world. We have that choice—a war limited to Korea—or a war expanded to Asia, where the long-smouldering Asiatic resentment against the West threatens the latter with a long-drawn-out struggle. It could not be a short, big war if that is the decision on Far Eastern policy. It could be only a big, long war.

For its successful conduct, necessarily there must be a united America committed to striking against and uprooting communism on the continent of Asia. We doubt that most Americans have reached the point where they are willing to commit themselves to full-scale warfare against that part of Asia which would be willing to join up with the Asiatic brotherhood.

The Good Men Do . . . ?

Most of us subscribe unreservedly to the proclaimed truth that the good men do live after them. We hope that proves to be the case with the late Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg.

Now is not the time to measure finally his service, although Joseph C. Harsch does a pretty good job of it in The Christian Science Monitor in these words:

"One can only note with profound anxiety that with the passing of Arthur Vandenberg, the machinery which gave the United States its period of greatest influence over the free world is no longer in existence. As yet the means of building new machinery to replace what is lost is not in sight. From 1945 through 1949, Arthur Vandenberg was the most generally respected and the most influential single member of the United States Senate. From 1945 through 1949, the prestige of the United States and its ability to influence the destiny of the world reached heights unequalled before—or since. . . . The machinery which put through the Marshall Plan and the Atlantic Pact was basically the personal relationship which existed between two men—Arthur Vandenberg in the senate and George C. Marshall at the department of state. These two men trusted and respected each other. They shared a purpose and a sense of the means which would have to be employed to achieve the purpose. . . . Senator Vandenberg knew that George Marshall never would subordinate foreign policy to the democratic party, and Secretary Marshall knew that Senator Vandenberg never would subordinate foreign policy to the republican party."

In those last two sentences may be found the answer to 90 per cent of today's confusion and cross-purposes.

Generally 90 per cent of the membership of the senate, as well as the house, will go along with party, errand boys on all occasions. The strength of congress has been its rebels, not its errand boys, not those who put party above country. What do we have now? We have our Wherrys, our Capeharts, our Jenners—and on a slightly raised platform, our Taft—"Mr. Republican" himself. When we turn to the other side of the aisle, we find much of the same situation.

This is not the time to measure the stature of Senator Vandenberg but this is the time to attempt to recapture to some extent the imagination and the purpose, the hope and the faith that he, teaming up with Secretary of State George Marshall, gave to the peoples of the free world. By individual example and by stated policy, they knit the free peoples into a compact force. Today we have snapping, snarling, a destructive partisanship on both sides, which seems to forget that the one urgent need at this hour is a sense of unity.

The tragedy of Senator Vandenberg's passing if his closing days permitted him to glance at the scene is that everything he held dear in this world was tumbling into ruins. The irony of the tributes heaped upon him by some of his party colleagues is that with ax and hammer, they were tearing down everything for which he gave his life—political and in the physical sense. Our victories have been the product of unity. Our failures in a very large sense have been the fruits of division.

Up At The Headwaters

The floods now plaguing communities on the banks of the Mississippi river are not the product of the swollen waters of the Ohio, the main stream.

These floods originated at the headwaters, chiefly in Minnesota, upper Iowa, and the Dakotas. They are the aftermath of a most severe winter, which buried pine forests and virgin grasslands under a deep blanket of snow. Thus far there has been little serious flooding along the Ohio; and except for ice jams, the Missouri has been surprisingly well-behaved, unruly stream that it is. But in Missouri, the snow blanket for the winter was more than eight feet in depth, and approached the all-time record.

A point of special interest is that forestation and grassing, valuable as they are in conserving moisture where it falls, and most highly desirable, still do not avert damaging and destructive floods when there is unprecedented snowfall, accompanied by rapid melting, or torrential rains. Nature takes care of a great deal of it most of the time. We have just finished planting a million trees in Nebraska this spring — it would be magnificent if that program could be stepped up to five million each year for the next ten years.

But when the claim is made that trees and grass, the natural state of much of this region within the Mississippi basin, furnish an answer to all floods, too much ground is being covered with a thin coating of bunk! Floods roared down the Mississippi and the Missouri long before the white man came. We are making some measurable progress in taming the Missouri with such structures as Fort Peck, and other big dams along the waterway, and through accompanying practices along the tributaries. A year ago along the Red River and now at this time on the Mississippi, it is worth noting that the bulk of the flood waters came from heavy forested or timbered country of virgin character or second growth.

Means What It Says

There's one thing about youngsters these days—they believe words should mean what they say. Take, for instance, those boys (and maybe girls) from Nortonville, Kansas, high school who crossed the state line into Falls City at 5:30 a.m., got the secretary of the chamber of commerce out of bed, rode the fire truck, visited a local dairy, had breakfast, and then skipped out of town undetected. They were celebrating a "sneak" day at their high school.

An Image Destroyed

Back somewhere in the haze of memories there is a picture of a small boy spread across his mother's lap while she mends a tear in the seat of his pants. It is a pleasant memory, summing up in one scene a large part of being a boy, having a mom to go to in time of need, and growing up.

That's why a news item this week caught our special attention. An enterprising company has come out with a new kind of patch for just such special occasions, and it is pressed on with a hot iron. The image is shattered. Whoever heard of pressing on a patch while the boy is still in the pants?

CHIEFS OF STAFF OPPOSED ATTACK BY CHIANG'S MEN

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — When the senate armed services committee starts sorting out all the memos and telecom messages exchanged between the Pentagon and General MacArthur the public may become more confused than ever about who is right in the big debate.

Several documents and memos prepared during various phases of the Korean campaign—if set aside from the others—could be used to prove almost any point.

Furthermore, it was once a paradoxical fact that Secretary of State Acheson was much closer to General MacArthur's position in China than the joint chiefs of staff. The wolf pack that always howls at Acheson's heels has been claiming he was responsible for MacArthur's ouster. However, the record shows first that this was not the case; second, that following MacArthur's disastrous retreat from North Korea in early December, Acheson favored severe punitive measures against China as an aggressor nation.

It was the joint chiefs of staff at that time which vigorously disagreed both with Acheson and MacArthur. In fact, they favored pulling out of Korea altogether.

However, despite individual and sometimes confusing differences of opinion inside the Pentagon, there appears to be no occasion when the joint chiefs of staff actually went on record in favor of MacArthur's proposals to bomb Chinese bases and using Chiang Kai-shek's troops.

In order to get as clear a picture as possible regarding the working of the joint chiefs of staff and their policy toward MacArthur, here is a breakdown on how the joint chiefs reacted to various MacArthur proposals:

Bombing Chinese Bases—The nearest the joint chiefs ever came to okaying MacArthur's proposed bombing of Chinese bases was on Feb. 28. Just before that date, MacArthur had sent a long report on enemy air strength. He reported certain strength building up in certain areas and in effect asked permission to bomb these bases.

Replying on Feb. 28, the joint chiefs gave MacArthur a set of five alternatives to counter Chinese moves. Since these would be of value to the enemy, they cannot be described here. But in each of the five alternatives, MacArthur was instructed to take no action on the Chinese side of the Yalu river without reporting back to the joint chiefs for further instructions.

Naval Blockade — Another question at issue has been a naval blockade of Chinese ports. On this, there was agreement. Both the joint chiefs and the state department okayed a naval blockade but it was vetoed by our allies in the United Nations. This was one of the proposals for which Secretary Acheson fought hardest when Prime Minister Attlee visited Washington. However, Attlee flatly refused to approve any naval blockade of China.

Hot Pursuit—Another point of agreement between MacArthur and the joint chiefs was the right of American planes to pursue communist planes beyond the Chinese border when engaged in a running battle. This did not include the bombing of Chinese bases. Though the joint chiefs agreed to this, either the state department or the national security council disapproved — I have not been able to ascertain which.

Chiang Kai-shek's Troops—This is the issue which MacArthur emphasized in his letter to ex-speaker Joe Martin, the letter which culminated in MacArthur's dismissal. Use of Chiang's troops never has been seriously considered by the joint chiefs.

General Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs, has argued that Chiang offered his troops chiefly for the purpose of getting ther equipped—which would be terrifically expensive. Furthermore, Adm. Forrest Sherman has pointed out that it would take an armada of American vessels to transport them to China.

Finally, the joint chiefs' study of Chiang's combat strength does not jibe with published claims of 600,000 men. According to Pentagon estimates it is nearer to 250,000 men. It is also recalled that much of the military equipment we furnished Chiang during the war ended up in the hands of the communists.

Different Personalities — Those close to the joint chiefs of staff point out that they are composed of four different men of varying ages and personalities. Gen. Joe Collins, for instance, chief of staff of the army, was a lieutenant when MacArthur was a general. When Collins went to Tokyo he was technically MacArthur's superior, though he always addressed MacArthur as "General" while MacArthur called him "Joe."

Collins is the member of the joint chiefs who has agreed with MacArthur more than anyone else. Admiral Sherman, the chief of naval operations, on the other hand, has been flatly opposed to MacArthur's position, while General Bradley is almost as vigorous.

Washington Calling

'BATTLE OF THE DOCUMENTS' MEANS PERILOUS ROAD AHEAD

By MARQUIS CHILDS

WASHINGTON—The battle of the documents has begun with the first major leak. The contents of the top secret memorandum on the Truman-MacArthur conference on Wake island has been disclosed in indirect form but with undoubted authenticity.

Marquis Childs

This leak came from somewhere in the White House and not from the Pentagon. Top military men were startled and dismayed at the extent of the revelation which included discussion of the line south of the former North Korean capital of Pyongyang where it was hoped last October to stabilize a United Nations line.

That information is of value to the enemy. Similar information of value to the communist conspiracy was contained in the messages between the Pentagon and MacArthur made public when the general was dismissed from his commands.

Here is an issue far more important than the question of who was right and when during the past nine months. For it relates directly to the lives of the men now fighting desperately to contain the Chinese communist attack. This is why the joint chiefs of staff have come to a decision in which they deserve the support of public opinion.

They are determined to keep certain documents completely secret. This means that they will not be shown in either open or closed hearings before any congressional committee. Repeatedly after executive sessions where the most careful checks for security have been made, someone has leaked vital information that blossoms in the headlines almost before the witness can get back to his office.

The documents to be held back contain further information of direct aid to the enemy. To spill them out in public would be to jeopardize the position of the U.N. armies to an even greater degree. The JCS have made their decision knowing full well that they may come under attack for it.

Their position is difficult enough in any event. They want, if possible, to avoid becoming entangled in the political controversy over MacArthur's dismissal, which was outside their sphere of action. The effort will be directed, therefore, at separating the argument over strategy, in which the joint chiefs have a most important role, from the bitterly emotional quarrel over the destiny of a hero-general.

If this can be done, then there is hope that the public will see in much clearer terms the real nature of the dispute and the powerful reasoning against deliberately risking any enlargement of the war in Asia at this point. If it proves impossible to separate the two phases of the dispute, we can look forward to little more than fiercer heat and even less light.

An important phase of the reasoning behind the need to try to limit the war is the state of Japan's defenses. While this treads on ticklish security ground, the likelihood is that the strength of Japan will be thoroughly developed. When intelligence reports indicated that the Russians were moving four divisions into Sakahlin and infiltrating small neighboring islands, Japan was virtually defenseless except for the poorly organized and inadequately equipped local police.

On the basis of this information which began coming in three to four months ago, the decision was made to send two national guard divisions to Japan where they now are. This was done after much grave deliberation since the two divisions had not completed their training. They are now undergoing the final conditioning in Japan.

Fortunately, the forthcoming inquiry will be directed by Chairman Richard Russell (d., Ga.) of the senate armed services committee. The key figure in the senate today, Russell has a calm and judicious temperament. He never resorts to the hot-foot techniques of Chairman Tom Connally of the senate foreign relations committee.

He will have to tread a perilous path with both wisdom and courage. The test will come above all in the interrogation of General MacArthur.

Those who have seen the general privately report, on the basis not so much of what he has said directly as in his attitude and the questions he asks, that he has a deep and grievous sense of having been wronged. This was revealed in part in Major General Courtney Whitney's interview. If the inquiry serves chiefly to stir emotions, then General MacArthur's emotion will predominate since it is so much loftier, grander and fiercer than any of the other passions involved. Some of that emotion was in his speech to congress. But those who have known him through the years realize there is a much higher charge pent up behind the outwardly disciplined exterior of the figure moving with such reserve through the fervor of America's welcome.

Nebraskans: In The Workshop And At Home

No. 76 Of a Series

IF the entrance into an organization of an eager and active young man means rapid progress for that organization, the Lincoln Urban League must necessarily grow by leaps and bounds.

For Lynnwood Parker is young (31), eager (a master of arts degree and work toward a doctorate), active (talks to three or four groups every day), and is the executive secretary of the Urban League. He is a man who can make the league grow.

PARKER'S goal, and consequently that of the league is stated as "the total integration of the Negro citizen in all phases of community life."

His former record is a point in favor of accomplishing his aim.

Born in Arrow Rock, Mo., he lived there for 14 years when he and his family moved to Omaha. After attending high school in Omaha, he spent a year in the civilian conservation corps and then entered the army as a private.

He entered officer candidate school and was commissioned a second lieutenant, with a promotion to first lieutenant one month and 17 days after his original commission was granted.

☆ ☆ ☆

PARKER feels his personal job is to interpret the desires and wishes of the Negro to business and labor, and then interpret their desires and wishes back to the Negro.

"It's a two-way road," Parker says.

As to integrating Negroes into community life, Parker points out that approximately 1,750 Negroes live in Lincoln, mostly within a fixed area.

☆ ☆ ☆

HIS biggest field of work is talking industries into accepting a Negro simply because he is a Negro. He must have not only the practical qualifications but also the emotional maturity to do a selling job for others.

Lincoln, he has found, has been "quite cooperative" in this.

The deepest feeling of Parker and the Urban League is this:

"My happiness today would be as nothing compared to the unbridled elation I would feel if on another such day I could say: There is no Urban League. For there is no longer any distinction among Americans because of race or color. For, thanks to tolerance—intelligence—good sense—the good Americanism of the citizenry of this great country, there is no more racial bigotry, no more racial intolerance, no more racial oppression and degradation, no more second-class citizenship for Negroes or any other Americans."

MORE DOGS AND GARDENS

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of the Lincoln Star: When it comes to this dog situation every spring, I also have my piece to speak. We both try so hard to raise a little garden to help with this high cost of living that now exists. Then these pests of dogs run around, destroying what little we can raise. In this neighborhood in less than a block, there are seven or eight dogs, some little ones and some big, clumsy ones. When they start running and digging and playing tag, there isn't much left of seeds and tender little plants. It certainly is discouraging. Even though these dog-lovers pay a tax to keep them, there should be a law that they must keep them in their own yards.

CUNNINGHAM EDITORIAL

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of the Lincoln Star: Thank you for publishing the guest editorial by our mutual friend, Harry F. Cunningham, on the capitol murals.

It seems to me that the colonel wrote an unusually interesting editorial—one that is sound in addition to having popular appeal.

HOME EXTENSION CLUBS

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor the The Lincoln Star: On behalf of the Home Extension clubs of Lancaster county, I wish to thank you for the very educational tour through your new plant and the courtesy shown us together with the very nice publicity given us on the day the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce entertained us so royally. We represent 47 clubs of more than 800 women who are very glad to extend to you our hearty support for all things good for our county and city in education, health and community service.

KOREAN QUESTION

Blue Hill, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: General MacArthur's address before congress was, in my opinion, a masterly oration. I feel that he proved his point that we cannot win a war against red China while confining our fighting in Korea, but could win such a war if, by doing as MacArthur proposes, Russia entered the conflict as her military pact with China would oblige her to do. MacArthur does not think Russia would do this, but he could be wrong. I believe the Chinese entered the war in Korea without any advance notice, and caught MacArthur by surprise. On the diplomatic side, our army fighting in Korea is a United Nations army and Britain and France are very much opposed to spreading the war and possibly could not go along with us in the conduct of the war such as MacArthur proposes. That would leave us in a very precarious situation.

GEORGE A. COLBURN.

MACARTHUR AFFAIR

Alexandria, Neb.

To the editor of the Lincoln Star: MacArthur, in his moving address to the congress of the United States, and through it to the world, builds up his case to its summit. Quoting his thought and partly his words: "As I said on the battleship Missouri six years ago, so say I again. 'War must be abolished or humanity faces Armageddon. Military alliances, balances of power, leagues of nations, all have failed'."

Clearly the problem has to be solved and all previous answers have proved to be fallacious. So we await anxiously, hopefully, his recommended solution. He urges what? A reawakening of the human spirit and a consequent improvement of human character. For a down-to-earth, practical soldier, this is nothing more than a flight into the wild blue yonder. It brings a tear but the old soldier does "just fade away."

RICHARD DILL.

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of the Lincoln Star: Aren't you beginning to be weary with all this MacArthur furor. The whole affair is becoming just political tripe. This talk of impeaching the president—on what grounds, pray? What alternative did the president have? Our foreign policy had been announced. The president had consulted with the general personally, going there to do it. The general, either intentionally or unintentionally, misunderstood and continued advocating his own policy. Should Mr. Truman have stepped back and said, "It's all yours, General MacArthur. Go ahead, and we of the United States will furnish you with all the American boys and American tax money you can pour into Asia.? To my way of thinking, that would have made the general a dictator instead of general of the army. How about it?

Peterson Warns Communist Conspiracy Is Threat

Governor Urges Fight By Example

Gives Final Address In Series At N.U.

Communism as a revolutionary movement, based upon subversion and supported by arms—not ideology — constitutes the real threat to the safety and security of free men today, Gov. Val Peterson declared Wednesday night.

The governor spoke in Love Memorial Library auditorium in the last of a series of lectures on "Communism, Threat to the American Economy," sponsored by Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity.

"Communism, as an economic system, is no threat to America or to free people anywhere. But communism, as a conspiracy against existing governments, employing every method of trickery and deception conceived by the human mind, is a distinct and continuing threat to free men everywhere," the governor asserted.

Battle of Minds

The present conflict with communism may be fought by arms in a limited sense, but it is basically a fight for the minds of men, he stated. Peterson went on to assert that a conscious revolutionary effort is possible only when there exists a foundation of discontent.

"The masses of Asia today are not particularly conscious of the class war, but they are bitter about distinctions based upon color." Communists play upon this hatred toward the white race, Peterson said.

Explaining the basic tenets of Marxian communism and the differences between the theory and actual practice in Russia, Peterson said the Russian "enterprise" is the basic unit of that country's economy. These are nominally independent organizations with their own capital structure—and they seek to make a profit, the governor pointed out.

No Freedoms

"Communism, of course, could be democratic. It could permit the freedoms of worship, speech and movement, but it doesn't. Russia, and all the other communist-controlled countries are dictatorships in which none of the freedoms are permitted and where the secret police are supreme."

While communism's appeal in the world is on the decline, the party leaders still hope the United States will destroy itself by its own selfishness, Peterson said.

He warned that America's greatest danger is the loss of the value of its money through inflation. "Eventually, if we are to save America, we must adopt a simple but difficult rule in Washington, in Lincoln and all other capitals: "Is this proposal good for all of America? If not it is not good even for the group which will benefit in the short range."

Take Advantage

To be effective in stopping communism in America, the governor urged that the country take advantage of the "two most revolutionary documents in the world, the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution." In this respect, he suppested the elimination of discrimination on the basis of race, color, creed and wealth.

"Let's eliminate the injustices and inequities in American life in order that we may set such a shining example before the world that peoples everywhere will want to emulate what we have accomplished."

America cannot eliminate overnight the forces which retard people throughout the world, but it must work constantly at it, the governor declared. "We must not think in terms of despoiling foreign peoples of their great national resources simply because we want them, and simply because they are retarded in comparison to our standard of living."

"Wisdom is not the exclusive possession of the white man and of the heritage which he traces through Rome and Greece to Palestine. We must get ourselves down on the ground. We must recognize our oneness with human beings the world around."

Student Cleared In Fatal Mishap

OMAHA. (AP). A 24-year-old medical student has been cleared of blame in the traffic death of Anton Grovijohn, 38, here early Friday.

The young man, Raymond Baumann, was the driver of the car which struck Grovijohn, a hospital orderly.

At the hearing, Baumann said he was driving 30 miles an hour. One witness estimated it at about 50, and another said "about 35."

Witnesses said Baumann, who admitted drinking two bottles of beer before the accident, did not appear intoxicated.

$5,675,851 Spent By State In March

The state spent $5,675,851 in March, State Tax Commissioner Philip Johnson said Wednesday. That brought expenditures for the current biennium, starting July 1, 1949, to $131,916,325.

On April 1, the unexpended balance of the state was $24,267,939 against which was $3,475,939 in encumbrances. This leaves an unencumbered balance of $20,792,000.

The March total expended included $2,369,782 from cash funds, $1,666,227 from the general fund and $1,639,841 in federal funds. These totals for the biennium, in order, are $55,371,773, $37,435,791 and $39,108,761.

As is usual, the big March expenditures were for the highway department $1,039,250 and assistance $1,557,062. For the biennium these accounts show $38,476,628 and $32,688,459.

Nurses Get A Briefing On Atomic Bomb Explosion

The atom bomb was taken out of the mystery weapons class Wednesday by two speakers at a state-wide meeting of nurses on the "Nursing Aspects of Atomic Warfare."

"The only thing new about the A-bomb is the nuclear radiation and the increased explosive power," said Dr. E. A. Rogers of the state department of health.

There is little danger from radiation outside a one mile radius of the atomic explosion, Dr. Rogers said.

However, the power of the explosion itself is equal to 20,000 tons of TNT, he said.

Pass On Information

In her orientation speech, Miss Emily Brickley told the 40 nurses registered for the three-day meeting that it was their job to return home and teach others what they had learned.

William S. Dunn, a chemist with the state department of health who has had specialized nuclear physics training at the Oak Ridge atom plant, explained to the nurses the basic composition of the atom and how it is exploded.

The fact that radiation cannot be detected by any of the senses gives people a psychological fear, Dunn said. Radiation, would cause fewer casualties than the mechanical damage of falling buildings and fire, he said.

Two Films Shown

Besides the talks, the nurses saw two films, "Atomic Power," and "The Medical Effects of the Atomic Bomb."

Thursday's program will include talks on "Health Services in the Defense Program, Radiation Detection, Contamination and Decontamination, State Civil Defense Plans, and The Role of the Nurse in the Defense Program.

There will also be a symposium on nursing care problems of the atom bomb.

Farnam License Granted

The state liquor commission has granted an on and off sale beer license to Harry W. and Flossie Adkisson, Farnam.

An alleged 51 per cent of Farnam's qualified voters had originally signed a petition protesting issuance of the license. However, 18 persons later withdrew their names and the village board granted the license, which action was affirmed by the commission.

Arrests Up 720 Pct. In 9 Years, Police Report Says

Parking Violations Big Reason, Osborn Tells Council Meeting

A record of stolen property recovery, a new traffic safety record and an increase in cases solved was reported by the Lincoln police department for 1950.

The department's annual report, submitted to the city council Tuesday by Welfare and Safety Director Ray Osborn, showed the above achievements in the face of an increase of 720 per cent from 1942 to 1950 in overall arrests as compared with only a 20 per cent increase in the number of officers in the department.

According to the report the department is considerably undermanned in comparison with established standards. The Lincoln force, it was shown, is operating on a basis of .84 man per each 1,000 population while the National Safety Council recommends a minimum of 1.38 men per 1,000 population. For cities in the 50,000 to 100,000 population group the ratio was shown to average 1.67 men per 1,000 persons.

Arrests Jump

In 1942 the overall arrests totaled 9,952 while in 1950 the figure had jumped to 81,895.

The report stated that the overall arrests increase of 30 per cent from 1949 to 1950 "is largely due to the steady rise in parking violation, which increased from 55,122 in 1949 to 71,198 in 1950, a 29 per cent rise."

The number of persons lodged in jail, according to the report, increased from 2,361 in 1949 to 2,871 in 1950.

Actual offenses reported by the department showed a decrease from 1,729 in 1949 to 1,539 in 1950. A clearance of 28 per cent was reported for 1950 in comparison with a 24 per cent clearance in 1949.

Property Recovered

The report showed that of the total property stolen, valued at $158,004.26, all but $31,658.85 was recovered — a recovery record of 80 per cent.

For the first time since 1945 the department reported that all stolen cars were not recovered. Two of the 107 stolen were never found and 39 per cent of the cases were cleared by arrests.

Sex offenses including rape decreased, said the report, from 84 cases in 1949 to 66 in 1950—a 21 per cent decrease. Of these, 49 were cleared by arrest, a 74 per cent clearance.

Against Trend

"These figures," the report stated, "are reassuring in face of the nationwide trend in the rise of sex offenses."

Other 1950 records shown in the report are:

Bad checks reported	221
Total complaints	27,675
Total accidents	4,877
Traffic violations	7,049
Total revenue	$223,608.03
Total personnel	105

In his letter to Osborn summarizing the report, Chief of Police Joseph T. Carroll stated, "In our review of the past year's activities, we feel that we have justification for pride in the achievements made in the field of law enforcement, especially when viewed with the consideration that our department is undermanned according to national standards."

Sigma Xi Names Werner President

Harvey O. Werner, professor of horticulture was elected Tuesday to presidency of the University of Nebraska chapter of Sigma Xi, national scientific honorary.

Other officers are:

Leslie Hewes, professor of geography and chairman of the department, vice president.

George C. Ernst, professor of civil engineering and chairman of the department, secretary.

Officers remaining in their positions are Donald M. Pace, professor of physiology as treasurer and Frank L. Duley, professor of agronomy as councilor.

Outgoing president, Ferris W. Norris, professor of electrical engineering and chairman of the department, presided.

Three Lincolnites To Attend National C. Of C. Meeting

Three Lincolnites will represent the city at the annual Washington, D.C., conference of the United States Chamber of Commerce April 29-May 2.

A. A. DuTeau, president of the chamber, Carl D. Ganz, treasurer of the chamber, and Archie J. Baley, general manager, were named delegates at a board of directors meeting Wednesday noon at the chamber.

"Over the years, the Lincoln chamber has developed many valuable contacts in the nation's capital, and we will try to see all our friends while there," DuTeau told the board.

Highlight at the conference will be the annual dinner honoring Nebraska's senators and congressmen. Among the speakers will be Secretary of State Dean Acheson; Senators Robert Taft of Ohio, Everett Dirksen and Paul Douglas of Illinois, Richard M. Nixon of California, Harry F. Byrd of Virginia and Eric Johnston, administrator of economic stabilization agency and Herschel D. Newsom, master of the National Grange.

Flory Heads C.D. Mobile Support Units

District Judge Robert D. Flory, Columbus, has been placed in charge of the state's civil defense mobile support units, Director Edward Gillette announced Wednesday.

Flory is a World War I and II veteran and is past state American Legion commander and past American Legion national vice commander.

Three mobile support units are planned, Gillette said.

He also announced the appointment of Ivan C. Riley, Fairbury, and Matt D. Pond, Lyons, to the advisory defense sub-committee for burget and finance. Both are bankers.

"I got the story on
50,000 Miles-No Wear
and changed to New Conoco Super Motor Oil" says H. O. Hall, Oil Well Drilling Superintendent, Corpus Christi, Texas

"'50,000 MILES—NO WEAR' IS FINE, but we back Conoco Super with a 60,000-mile written guarantee on our new cars," states Eugene B. Baxter, Chrysler-Plymouth distributor, Cedar Rapids, Iowa. "We believe Conoco Super will best insure the success of our 60,000-mile guarantee."

"I'VE AVERAGED 5,000 MILES A MONTH since changing to new Conoco Super," reports G. M. Deen, Traveling Salesman, Perry, Oklahoma. "Since switching to Conoco Super I get better gasoline mileage and trouble-free operation. I believe the '50,000 Miles—No Wear' story now!"

"50,000 MILES-NO WEAR!"—PROVED HERE:

After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper crankcase drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence . . . in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts.

AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000! This test proved that new Conoco Super, with OIL-PLATING, can make your car last longer, perform better, use less gasoline and oil.

Conservation Standards Maintained Under Unification Order

McClymonds Describes New Setup

To Northern Great Plains Officials

A. E. McClymonds of Lincoln, regional director of the soil conservation service, told state conservationists of northern Great Plains region Wednesday that procedures under Secretary of Agriculture Brannan's unification order have been worked out with the result that there is to be no change in the soil conservation service standards of quality in conservation work.

The SCS will be able to continue its aid to soil conservation districts as before under the arrangements and at the same time meet its responsibilities for the technical phases of the part of the PMA conservation practices dealing with permanent-type conservation practices, McClymonds explained to state conservationists from the six-state region, who were in Lincoln for a field meeting.

Some Features In Use

Director McClymonds just returned from the Washington office and from regional directors' meetings at Cincinnati, O., where the procedures were explained under the SCS-PMA unification order. Many parts of the procedures are already in operation in the field, the regional director declared, and they are included in the overall program.

Under Secretary Brannan's order, McClymonds said, the department of agriculture is committed to a policy of aiding farmers and ranchers to use land according to its capabilities, and treating it according to its needs.

Many farmers who will be aided with permanent-type conservation practices are not yet soil conservation district cooperators, he said, but it has been the experience that farmers and ranchers once started on a sound conservation program soon begin co-operation with a soil conservation district. The new program, he said, is regarded as a step toward speeding up the application of sound and complete conservation plans on the land.

Present at the conference here are F. J. Sykes, W. H. Teas, and S. J. Kortan of Salina, Kas.; E. G. Jones, A. R. Marquardt, H. F. Tagge of Lincoln; A. L. Ford of Huron, S. D.; L. G. Lloyd, M. H. Braus and Walter Augustadt of Bismarck, N. D.; T. C. Anderson, H. C. Hurd and E. A. Sanderson of Bozeman, Mont., and J. A. Bartruff of Laramie, Wyo.

TERAACING IN LANCASTER COUNTY—Three miles of terraces were built on the Allen Jones-Clarke leary farm east of Roca recently between the rains that have delayed terracing in the county a month. Drivers Are Requested To Check Speed

With the addition of five traffic deaths over the week-end to Nebraska's traffic toll to bring the year's total to 88 as compared to 64 for the same period last year, Capt. C. J. Sanders, Nebraska safety patrol, has urged Nebraskans to check their speed to check accidents.

"We know," Captain Sanders reported, "that many drivers are driving too fast to have complete control of their cars. As evidence is the fact that about half of the state's traffic deaths thus far this year have been the result of one-car accidents. Too, several drivers have lost control and caused head-on collisions."

The patrol's activity report for March showed that 1,242 arrests were made for dangerous traffic violations. Of this number, 430 were for speeding, and 1,388 warning cards also were issued for less hazardous violations.

Sound Sleeper

OMAHA — (AP) — Lightning struck a tree in front of the home of R. G. Tinkham of Omaha Tuesday night. Witneesses said the tree virtually exploded. A neighbor across the street said the lightning made a "terrible" blast. Tinkham, asleep at the time, said he didn't hear a thing.

Cleaning Fluid Fatal To Omaha Child

OMAHA. (AP). A drink of cleaning fluid brought death Tuesday night to Tim Ledgerwood, 16 months, son of Mrs. Delores Ledgerwood of Omaha.

The mother said she was cleaning the collar of a dress with the fluid. She put the can on a bench and the boy drank from it.

The child was dead when the doctor arrived.

Dr. Knowles To Speak At Doane

CRETE, Neb. — Dr. Roy C. Knowles, a psychiatrist from the Menninger Foundation, Topeka, Kas., will be guest speaker at the student convocation at Doane college Thursday morning. He will also give an evening address before the United Student Fellowship at the college.

At the convocation at 11 a.m. Dr. Knowles will speak on relationships between psychiatry and religion. At the student fellowship meeting at 7:30 p.m. he will describe the work of a psychiatrist and open the meeting to general discussion by the audience.

Dr. Knowles, who is just completing his psychiatric residency at the Menninger school of psychiatry, will join the staff of the Southard school, the foundation's treatment center for emotionally disturbed children, on July 1.

He is a brother of the Rev. Rex Knowles, pastor of Student House at the University of Nebraska.

Ex-Nebraskan Hurt In Sea Collision

SCOTTSBLUFF, Neb. (AP)—A former Melbeta, Neb., man was a crew member of the Esso Suez when it was involved in a sea collision with the Esso Greensboro in the Gulf of Mexico last Friday. The accident cost an estimated 39 lives. Glenn Freeman of Boston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Freeman of Melbeta, was a fireman aboard the Suez. His parents have been notified that Freeman escaped injury.

Irrigation Preparation Under Way On Hardy Farm

New Project Directed By N.U. Expert

3-Year Development Program Is Planned

HARDY, Neb.—The Bostwick irrigation development farm near here is getting its first treatment in preparation for irrigation.

The farm, owned by Everett Stenson, is the second irrigation development land to be set up by government agencies to show how dryland may be converted to irrigation. James R. Barker, University of Nebraska extension irrigation engineer, is in charge of the work on the new development farm as well as that on the Mac Anderson farm near Arapahoe, which came under the plan last year.

100 Acres Irrigable Land

The Stenson farm which is operated by the owner's son, Willard, is a quartersection with 100 acres of irrigable land. The university agricultural extension service and the soil conservation service has helped Stenson to plan a three-year development for the land and a longtime rotation program. Plans are to have about 30 head of milk cows and about 25 brood sows when the farm is fully developed. That would require about a half of the farm in permanent pasture and hay crops.

The leveling job on the first 25 acres will be completed soon. That means moving approximately 5,000 cubic yards of earth from ridges into low places. Barker said the cost will be about $40 per acre. The remainder of the farm, however, will be irrigated in 1951.

Alfalfa on the steeper land has been corrugated and is ready to be irrigated when the first water comes down the Superior canal. The bureau of reclamation, which has charge of the water supply, announced that the contract for irrigation water is expected to be completed about July 1.

NEW MADISON LUTHERAN CHURCH—Construction has started on the new Madison, Neb., Trinity Lutheran church, shown above in the architect's drawing. This will be the third church erected by the Trinity Congregation. The first was in 1885 and the next in 1909. The new structure will measure 107 feet by 35 feet, will have a seating capacity of 368 in the nave. It is hoped that the building will be available for use by the next Christmas season. A large auditorium is planned for the basement. Rev. W. J. Oetting serves as church pastor. (Photo Special to The Star.)

Bank Robbery 40 Years Ago Led To A Bloody Aftermath

GILTNER, Neb. (AP). Forty years ago Wednesday the Citizens Bank of Giltner was burglarized, and as an aftermath a year later one of the bloodiest chapters in Nebraska history was written.

The safe of the Giltner bank was blasted with nitroglycerine by Arthur "Shorty" Gray and two companions, John Evans and Harry Quincy Forbes. They escaped in a buggy with $2,000 but were captured the same day, and later were convicted in Hamilton county and sentenced to the penitentiary.

On March 14, 1912, a blizzard was raging when Gray and two other convicts, John Dowd and Charles Morley, overpowered a guard and shot their way out of the penitentiary. In effecting their escape they shot and killed Warden James Delehunty, Deputy Warden Charles Wagner and an usher, A. G. Heilman, and seriously wounded another prison guard.

Running Battle

A few days later, after a career of crime which included forcing a boy to drive them through Lincoln in a milk wagon (a trip during which the Lincoln police chief helped them out of a snowdrift without knowing who they were), the men appeared near the town of Meadow. They went to the farm of James Blunt, forced the family to feed them, and compelled Blunt's son Roy to drive them away in a wagon.

Posses were closing in on them and three miles from Gretna the convicts and posse staged a running battle. Gray was hit and killed. Dowd killed himself, and Morley surrendered.

When the Blunt team was stopped, Roy Blunt was dead in the wagon.

There was a dispute between Sheriff Gus Hyers of Lancaster county and Chief of Police Briggs of Omaha over which one killed Gray. Both claimed the credit, but the dispute backfired when indignant Sarpy county citizens reasoned that whoever killed Gray must also have killed young Blunt.

The next day, at the penitentiary, Morley said neither killed Blunt, but that Gray shot the young farmer as he attempted to jump from the wagon after the shooting began.

The loot from the Giltner bank never was recovered despite a thorough search along the Platte river.

Public Health Plan Would Cost State $2,128,000

WASHINGTON— (AP) — The public health service has outlined a co-ordinated health service plan, aimed at "a superior type of health protection," which would require of Nebraska a $2,128,000 outlay for basic health services.

It emphasized that the study is "intended as a guide rather than a blueprint."

Nebraska's outlay would be an increase of $1,885,000 over 1947.

The plan suggests creation of area public health units including various counties within a state and close co-operation between health services and the hospitals.

OPS Chief Promises His Aid To Farmers

OMAHA. (AP). The Nebraska price chief says that in administering price control, his office is trying to lean toward the agricultural midwest.

The statement came from Edwin Moran, director of the Nebraska office of price stabilization, in a talk before the Tribe of Yessir, Omaha chamber of commerce group.

He promised to do his best to see that the farmer gets a fair break in the price-control program "because what helps the farmer helps the rest of the state."

Meanwhile, two special agents from the Washington office of OPS were here this week checking on the local meat situation.

Electrification Growth Is Cited

(Special to The Star)

PALISADE, Neb.—Growth of rural electrification in Nebraska under the control of local associations of the farmers who are benefited, was discussed by Robert B. Crosby of North Platte here Wednesday.

Before members of the Southwest Electric Membership corporation, Crosby pointed out that "in the short space of 15 years the percentage of electrified farms in the U.S. has been raised from 10 per cent to almost 90 per cent. Today more than 3,500,000 farms and homes are served by rural electricity.

"In the present global contest with the communist idea, no stronger proof could be given that our system of free institutions is as vital as it ever was, and is creating an ever stronger agricultural community," added Crosby, former lieutenant governor of Nebraska.

This southwest group covers six counties, Chase, Dundy, Frontier, Hayes, Hitchcock and Red Willow.

Lifetime Ashland Resident Is Dead

(Special to The Star)

ASHLAND, Neb. — Mrs. Neda Wagner, 76, lifetime resident of Ashland, died here Tuesday after a long illness. She was the widow of Jess Wagner.

She is survived by two sons, Ralph of Omaha and Wallie of Ashland; two daughters, Mrs. George Dasher of Plattsmouth, and Mrs. Jennie Jackson of Lincoln; 18 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Huge Chicago Crowd To See Mac

Near Holiday Is Planned Thursday

Parade, Speeches, Fireworks On Tap

CHICAGO —(AP)— Millions from Chicago and the midwest are expected to turn out Thursday to see Gen. Douglas MacArthur here.

Chicago is planning for possibly the greatest demonstration in its history to welcome the five-star general on his first visit to the midwest since his return to the United States last week.

The city will go on a virtual holiday footing. Officials are preparing for a turnout of 3,000,000.

23 Mile Parade

In the afternoon there will be a 23-mile parade from the airport to the Loop and thru the business district. At night, a jamboree and fireworks display will be held in Soldier Field.

General MacArthur is due to arrive from New York in his plane at 12:30 p.m., accompanied by Mrs. MacArthur and their son. He is expected to speak on his arrival and to deliver a talk later at Soldier Field.

His Solder Field talk has been billed as "not a major policy speech."

If Thursday's turnout reaches expectations he will have been seen in person by nearly a twelfth of the nation's population in less than two weeks.

Near Holiday

Earlier MacArthur parades and celebrations attracted 300,000 spectators in San Francisco, 550,000 in Washington and 7,500,000 in New York.

There's be little going on in Chicago Thursday except the celebration.

City, county and Chicago state offices will close at noon. The board of trade and some business houses will close at noon. Most of the look stores are shutting up during the afternoon parade.

Public schools are on spring vacation and Catholic schools have declared the day a holiday.

$2,200,000 Expansion Of Defense Work

... In Nebraska

WASHINGTON—(AP)— Based on industry's requests for tax benefits covering plant expansion, Nebraska's defense industry has undergone a $2,200,000 expansion.

Pennsylvania leads the nation in the expansion of its defense industry, to the extent this is shown by requests for tax benefits, with a total of $756,460,000.

Iowa's total is $6,152,000 and Kansas' $16,415,000. No facilities for expansion have been approved in either North or South Dakota.

Couple Make Futile Try To Rob Bank

At Silver Creek, Stage Getaway

SILVER CREEK, Neb.—(AP)— An attempted robbery at the Farmers State bank was foiled Wednesday when a man living next door heard noises and notified authorities.

The two robbers got away on foot.

W. C. Logan, the bank's vice president, said the men obtained nothing at the bank but left behind such tools as a couple of crowbars and a hammer. In their flight they also dropped an electric drill, found about a half block away.

Abandoned Car Found

An automobile which the men were believed to have used was found a block from the bank. It bore an Omaha license number.

The robbers had hammered off the dial of the safe and had started drilling on the lock when they apparently became alarmed.

Logan said Arthur Archer, a barber, who lives next door, heard a noise at the bank about 1:10 a.m. He called Virgil Willits, Merrick county deputy sheriff. Vernon Martin, employe of the Nebraska Ordnance plant at Mead, who lives across the street from the bank, was alerted to watch.

Just after Willits arrived and went into the Archer residence, the men fled. Martin fired three shots but the men kept running.

Logan said the Federal Bureau of investigation has been checking the case.

'We Are Killing Them Like Flies; None Of Our Units Badly Hurt,' U.N. Leader Says

BY DON A. SCHANCHE

ON THE WESTERN KOREAN FRONT (Thursday) —(INS)— Allied forces in west Korea drew back south of the 38th parallel Wednesday in the face of communist China's "end the war" offensive.

The retreat was made deliberately to maintain an unbroken front and economize the lives of United Nations soldiers while forcing the reds to pay the highest possible force for ground gained.

Officers said the communists now are attacking in the west with at least 33 divisions, most of them fresh when the attack started. Some, perhaps half, now are badly mauled.

Commanders Satisfied

The center of Wednesday's fighting was south of the Imjin river.

Despite two successive pullbacks since Sunday's attack, allied commanders said Wednesday they weer satisfied with the results of the fighting.

One division commander said: "We are killing them like flies.

UN Not Bad Off

"But none of our major units has been badly hurt—while the Chinese have taken some really terrible losses.

"On one company front alone, we counted 384 Chinese bodies —twice our company strength."

The artillery commander of one UN division said his guns poured 20,000 rounds into the Chinese in the 24 hours ending at noon Wednesday and added: "That's really heavy fire—for this war or any war. And the best of it is there is no restriction on supplies. We can shoot all we want and as long as we want.

"Artillery is our greatest single advantage on the grounds and we are getting everything out of it we can. It costs a lot of money to fire shells like that (about $1,000,000 for 20,000 rounds) but it saves lots of NU lives. It's worth it."

Another officer said:

"Each one of our regiments is probably shooting the heart out of one of their (enemy) divisions every night."

Run Out of Steam.

"If this keeps up for a few more days they are going to run out of steam."

There was no real pessimism among the front line troops—nothing whatever resembling the pall of defeatism that hung over the Eighth army during last January's retreat.

OPEN THURSDAY EVENINGS

FOREIGN PORTS— ...Our Dish of Tea

THIS DEFINITELY IS OUR week for foreign ports—We've had people traveling in South America—We've had people from Arabia—Yesterday we brought a guest to Lincoln from England—and today we have another guest who is en route to French Morocco—

But—strange as it may seem—we also have people who are just staying home—but having fun anyway—

* * *

FROM ONE SIDE of the world to the other will go Mrs. Keith Adkisson and her small son, Steven—aged eighteen months. Mrs. Adkisson and Steven have just returned from Guam where Lieut. (jg) Adkisson was stationed — and they stopped off for a visit in Lincoln en route to Port Lyautey, French Morocco, where Lieut. Adkisson already is at his post.

During their stay in Lincoln Mrs. Adkisson and Steven are the guests of Mrs. Adkisson's mother, Mrs. R. C. Pauley, and her sister, Mrs. F. J. Griffin. Incidentally, Mrs. Adkisson is the former Janice Pauley, Delta Delta Delta at Nebraska.

One more interesting item concerning the Adkissons—We hear that when Lieut. Adkisson was to be sent to Port Lyautey all Mrs. Adkisson asked for was a spot of their own they could call home. The navy assured her it would find living quarters—and did. But instead of the small house the Adkissons had anticipated, the story is that a French villa is awaiting them.

* * *

MIGHT JUST AS well go on with the guest list—Spending the week in Lincoln is Mrs. Lawrence Pathe of Cincinnati, O., who is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Raymond Dein, and Mr. Dein.

* * *

BEFORE WE FORGET IT we want to tell all active members of the Lincoln Junior League that the May meeting has been postponed from Tuesday evening, May 1, to Wednesday evening, May 2—same place—Hotel Cornhusker—and same time.

* * *

UNDERSTAND THAT Prof. and Mrs. Louis Reitz are home again after a trek to Manhattan, Kans., where last Monday Prof. Reitz spoke at a meeting of Gamma Sigma Delta (agriculture college honorary).

Next Thursday Mrs. Reitz returns to Manhattan—where the Reitz family resided for eight years before coming to Lincoln—to attend the diamond jubilee celebration of the Domestic Science club.

* * *

THINGS HAVE BEEN happening down Sullins college way (Bristol, Va.), too—Word from Sullins tells us that Miss Mary Ann Chambers received the award for outstanding work in languages at the Sullins college honors day program on Wednesday, April 25. Miss Chambers is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Chambers.

* * *

THE STEPHENS COLLEGE campus will be filled with alumnae from all sections of the country beginning April 26 and continuing through May 1—From Lincoln, to attend the celebration will be Mrs. F. K. Stiner.

* * *

LEARNED THAT the parents of Lincoln boys now attending Shattuck school, Faribault, Minn., have arranged a dinner for the members of Shattuck's Crack Squad who will be in town this week-end—Included in the group of hosts and hostesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Donald Devries, whose son is a member of the squad; Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Dobson, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett Martin, Dr. and Mrs. J. Marshall Neely, and Mr. and Mrs. Phil L. Sidles.

* * *

SINCE MISS JAYNE CARTER sliced a whole month off her original wedding date—from May 26, to April 28—she hasn't had a moment that hasn't been devoted to parties, classes and shopping—And the parties continue almost to the last moment—

Last evening (Wednesday) the bride-elect was the honoree at a 7:30 o'clock dessert supper for which Miss Rosanne Hedke was hostess at her home. Sixteen guests—all members of Kappa Kappa Gamma—were invited for the supper and a miscellaneous shower for Miss Carter.

And on Tuesday Miss Carter was complimented by Mrs. D. V. Owens when she entertained at luncheon at her home.

* * *

PLANE-ING OFF TO New Orleans on Tuesday were Dr. and Mrs. Merritt Pedersen, their daughter, Miss Marilyn Pedersen, and their son, Donald, who plan to be away a week. While in New Orleans Dr. Pedersen will present a paper at a dental meeting.

* * *

JUST FOUND ANOTHER weekend guest—Miss Jean Broady of Johnson who arrives on Friday to be the house guest of Miss Paula Broady (no relation).

Complimenting her guest, Miss Paula Broady will be hostess at a waffle supper on Saturday evening when she entertains twelve guests at her home.

* * *

WE'VE ALREADY TOLD you that the Faculty Dancing club was having its last party of the season on Saturday evening, but now we have the dinner-dance guest list—including Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCalla, Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Klingman, Mr. and Mrs. Verdon Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Keller, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Dalrymple, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Smith, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Armstrong and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Reed.

* * *

SATURDAY, WE ARE TOLD, is the day that the Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae will be meeting for a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. E. M. O'Shea. The committee in charge of the luncheon arrangements is composed of Mrs. Harry W. Meginnis, jr., Mrs. Richard O. Joyce, Mrs. Lee Chapin, Mrs. A. T. Lobdell, Mrs. Raymond A. McConnell, jr., Mrs. Harold Hellweg, Mrs. Robert Edgren, Mrs. Russell Mattson, Mrs. Floyd L. Rogers and Mrs. John Morrow.

Camp Fire Course Cancelled

The outdoor training course for Camp Fire leaders originally scheduled for Thursday at Bethany Park has been cancelled because of the weather, as announced by Mrs. L. E. Liebers.

Ladies Day Out

Members of Ladies Day Out club will meet Thursday at 1:15 o'clock at the Y.W.C.A. for swimming, followed by the construction of toys for the Y.W.C.A. playroom.

Tea hostesses will be Mrs. Charles Wert, Mrs. Charles Mitchell and Mrs. Bud Klippert. Nursery care will be furnished for the pre-school children of members.

ST. ELIZABETH HOSPITAL

MR. AND MRS. DONALD BENNETT, 930 A street, a son, on Wednesday, April 25. Mrs. Bennett is the former Carol Borce.

MR. AND MRS. CURTIS GUSTAFSON, Greenwood, a daughter, on Tuesday, April 24. Mrs. Gustafson is the former Eleanor Kastel.

MR. AND MRS. ORVIL TESELLE, 2112 South Thirteenth street, a daughter, on Wednesday, April 25. Mrs. TeSelle is the former Helen Jacobitz.

Good Morning . . . Memorial Postponed

The annual memorial service held each spring by the members of the Lincoln Woman's club in memory of the club's deceased members and the Lancaster county war dead has been indefinitely postponed.

The service was originally planned for Sunday, April 29, but because of street construction near Memory Garden in Antelope park, the service cannot be held. Announcement will be made at a later date for the service.

Alumnae Name Officers

Mrs. Lloyd True entertained the alumnae of Delta Delta Delta Tuesday evening at her home when the group elected officers for the coming year. Mrs. Elmer Hansen was named president of the group and she will be assisted by Mrs. Paul Burden, first vice president; Mrs. Robert Glenn, second vice president; Mrs. Donald Grant, recording secretary; Miss Jean Hazen, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. William Schaumberg, treasurer.

A dessert supper was served following the business meeting, and hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Robert Glenn, chairman, Mrs. Sidney Bradley, Miss Valeria, Bonnell, Miss Fay Bonnell, Mrs. Carl Brueckert, Mrs. W. L. Green, Mrs. J. C. Higgins, Mrs. Cecil Dunovan, Mrs. Harold Prince of Grand Island, and Mrs. C. E. Potter.

LINCOLN GENERAL HOSPITAL

MR. AND MRS. LAWRENCE CAMPBELL, 1336 North Nineteenth street, a daughter, on Wednesday, April 25. Mrs. Campbell is the former Crystal Burgess.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES CALLAHAN, 2125 O street, a daughter, on Tuesday, April 24. Mrs. Callahan is the former Laverne Duff.

PTA Sponsors Publications

The Nebraska Congress of Parents and Teachers has sponsored the publication of a leaflet compiled through the efforts of the committee on teacher selection and professionalization of the Nebraska Council on Teacher Education, which will be presented this spring to graduating seniors of Nebraska high schools.

Dedicated to Dr. William L. Nicholas, late president of Peru State Teachers college, who served as chairman of the committee and who was instrumental in assembling the leaflet, the publication contains information on the teaching profession contributed by outstanding members of the profession throughout the state.

We Hear That

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keitges and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hudkins were weekend guests of Mrs. Emma Albright and Mr. and Mrs. William Parker of Des Moines, Iowa.

Mrs. Hudkins, president of the Sixth district of Credit Women's Breakfast Clubs of North America, and Mrs. Keitges were guests of honor at a brunch given by Mrs. Parker and at tea at the Girton home. Mrs. Hudkins was presented with an orchid corsage by the Des Moines Credit Women's Breakfast club.

Northeast Center Fathers' Night

Sam Good presided at the Tuesday evening father's night meeting of the Northeast Child Center Mother's club, held in the school auditorium.

Election of officers was held, with Mrs. Jack Critchfield named as president for the coming year. Mrs. Arthur Thompson was elected vice-president; Mrs. Otto Zemke, secretary; and Mrs. Ed Holscher, treasurer.

A talk on the proposed school bond issue was presented by Dr. Steven Watkins. Group singing was led by Dwight Catlett, with E. Jeffery as accompanist. Mr. Jeffery also played a group of piano selections.

A barbershop quartette, Charles Keech, Walter Baker, Lloyd Ledderer and Walter Durham, sang a number of songs. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bovey and Mr. and Mrs. Max Hester were in charge of refreshments.

For its annual ladies' night party, held Tuesday evening at Cotner Terrace, the Kiwanis club borrowed one of the skits from the Co-ed Follies—"Women Drafted"—by a Kappa Alpha Theta foursome, started the evening off in an hilarious fashion.

Lincoln PTA Units Elect New Officers

The April meeting of HUNTINGTON P.T.A. was held Tuesday evening at the school when the members elected Mrs. William Hohenstein president for the coming year. Other new officers of the unit are: Mrs. Guy Matson, first vice president; Mrs. I. F. Conaway, second vice president; Mrs. George Irwin, secretary; Mrs. H. M. Bowmaster, treasurer; and Mrs. Carl Bracy and Mrs. Clifford Jones, council representatives.

Guest speaker at the meeting, which had a "standing-room only" attendance, was Robert Venner of the Lincoln school board who talked on the proposed school bond issue. Announcement was made that Huntington district voters may call the P.T.A members for transportation to the polls next Tuesday by contacting Mrs. Clifford Jones, P.T.A. president.

A report on the recent state P.T.A. convention was given by Mrs. William Hohenstein, and Mrs. Harry Pavey gave a financial report. Songs by the fifth and sixth grade chorus, directed by Mrs. Dorothy Spicknall, were featured in the program, and a state life membership certificate and pin were presented to Mrs. Jones for her service as president of the unit. The members also voted to contribute a sum of money to the school as a gift from the P.T.A.

Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. Byron Rigg, Mrs. Claude Wingrove, Mrs. Morgens Plum, Mrs. Leslie Kness, Mrs. Richard Atto, Mrs. Floyd Ueberrheim, Mrs. Ben Eisenach, Mrs. Austin Goth, Mrs. Clyde Underwood and Mrs. Seymour Lee.

TUESDAY MEETING

NORWOOD PARK P.T.A. members met Tuesday afternoon at the school and elected the following new officers for the coming year: president, Mrs. Lambert Mills; first vice president, Mrs. DeWitt Bennett; second vice president, Robert Norman; secretary, Mrs. Delmar Cain; and treasurer, Mrs. Alex Schaffer.

Mrs. Delmar Cain, retiring president, presided at the short business meeting after which a social hour was held and refreshments were served by the executive committee. Guests at the informal affair were the members of the Norwood Park school faculty.

APRIL PROGRAM.

Mrs. Glen Hester was elected president of BELMONT P.T.A. at the Tuesday evening meeting of the unit. Assisting officers for the coming year will be Mrs. Herbert Glover, vice-president; Mrs. Delmer Wiley, secretary; and Mrs. Hugh Buckner, treasurer.

Mrs. Roscoe Hill of the Lincoln school board talked on the school bond issue. A group of songs was presented by the Elliott-Hartley Mothersingers, followed by the showing of a film on world brotherhood.

Refreshments were served by the hostess committee, headed by Mrs. John Westbrook, chairman.

SPEAKS ON BOND ISSUE.

A special meeting of PRESCOTT P.T.A. was held Tuesday evening at the school to acquaint members and the public with the proposed school bond issue. Elmer E. Magee, vice-president of the board of education, discussed the plan.

Mr. Magee was introduced by Mrs. Charles Haas, program chairman. Mrs. W. W. Ray presided.

Children of the members were entertained with movies shown by Prescott faculty members, Mrs. Dorcas Cavett, Mrs. Ruth Ann Richards, Miss Betty Elmen, Miss Ethel Albert, Miss Leona McCallum and Miss Mary Ann Cornell.

PLAN VARIETY SHOW

Announcement was made at the Tuesday evening meeting of EVERETT P.T.A. that a variety show will be presented on May 11 at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium, under P.T.A. sponsorship.

Election of officers for the coming year was held with Mrs. H. J. Hauschild re-elected as president. Other newly-elected officers are Mrs. Charles Borner, vice president; Mrs. Ruth Place, second vice president; Mrs. R. R. Snook, secretary; Mrs. Glen Overton, treasurer; Mrs. P. S. Fox and Mrs. Wilber Smith, council representatives; and Miss Winifred Howell, auditor.

Harold Mardis spoke on the proposed school building program, and the Rev. Gordon Schroeder was guest speaker for the evening.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Andrew Beltz, Mrs. Glen Overton, Mrs. Ruth Place and Miss Mabel Souther.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nolte were elected joint presidents of SHERIDAN P.T.A. at the March meeting of the unit.

Assisting officers will be Mrs. Jerry Hunt, first vice president; Mrs. Irvin Rosewell, second vice president; the principal of Sheridan school will be the third vice president; Mrs. Donald Purvis, secretary; Mrs. Harold Osborn, treasurer; Mrs. Fred Davie and Mrs. P. A. Youngscap, council representatives.

Western Woman's Club Meeting

Mrs. Henry Wehr, Fourth district president, and Mrs. Floyd Wallen, Seward-Saline county president, were guests of the Western Woman's club at the April meeting of the group, held at the American Legion hall.

Mrs. C. Urbach, president of the Western club, introduced Mrs. Wallen and Mrs. Wehr, who spoke on the state convention of the Nebraska Federation of Women's clubs and the youth program.

The musical program, based on the theme "A Century of Music in America," was arranged by Mrs. Fred Winter, Mrs. E. O. Steele and Mrs. Arthur Matzke.

We Hear That

Mr. and Mrs. David Rockwell have as their houseguests for several days Mrs. Rockwell's father, Leo Dein, and Mrs. Dein of Broken Bow. Mr. and Mrs. Dein were married on Monday, April 16, at San Fernando, Calif., and are enroute to their home in Broken Bow.

Before her recent marriage, Mrs. Dein was Mrs. Lillian M. Waxham of Grants Pass, Ore., formerly of Lincoln.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM G. CHASSEREAU, 1030 North Forty-eighth street, a son, on Tuesday, April 24. Mrs. Chassereau is the former Genevieve Snelser.

Meetings Scheduled On S.S. Coverage

A series of evening meetings to discuss state legislation enabling governmental subdivisions, and the state, to put their employes under social security were announced by State Tax Commissioner Phillip Johnson.

Johnson said 86 political subdivisions have indicated desire to extend social security to their employes and others are considering it.

He added that the meetings are not to "sell" social security coverage but simply to explain the newly enacted statute enabling legislation.

Expected to attend the sessions are county boards, city councils and other representatives of subdivisions. Also present will be representatives of Johnson's office and of the national social security administration.

The schedule:

April 30, Ogallala, Ord, Lincoln, Omaha.
May 1, Alliance, Imperial, Grand Island, York, Columbus.
May 2, Rushville, McCook, Superior, Beatrice, West Point.
May 3, Gering, North Platte, Holdrege, Nebraska City, Norfolk, O'Neill.
May 4, Sidney, Ainsworth, Falls City.
May 7, Broken Bow.
May 8, Mullen.

N.U. Couple Combine School, Business

A couple of University of Nebraska students are combining marriage, education and business —and making a success of all three.

Donald D. Jensen and his wife, the former Janet Kepner, are paying their way by running a rooming house for five N.U. students and carrying a normal load of class work.

By pooling their efforts and studying together after their marriage last August, they made the best grades of their college career.

At the university's 23rd annual honors convocation Tuesday morning, the two were recognized for grade averages in the upper three per cent of the entire senior class. Last week they were elected to Phi Beta Kappa, top national scholastic honorary.

Although Don is from Holdrege and Janet from Osceola, they knew each other before they enrolled at the university as freshmen in the fall of 1947.

Then over a period of three years, during which Donald was earning membership in forensic and pscyhology honoraries and Janet was winning a place in modern language, Teachers college and theater honoraries, they became better acquainted.

They might have waited to be married until after graduation had not a house suddenly come into Don's life. His brother-in-law, who had formerly lived there, moved out of town and the place was vacant. It was too happy a chance to pass up.

The Jensens were married, moved in and promptly rented the upstairs, making Janet probably the youngest "house mother" on record.

Janet had done very little cooking before her marriage, but she has learned her lessons well in this field too, Don testifies. Her specialty is pineapple bread pudding.

Janet's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kepner, Osceola, and Don's, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jensen, Holdrege.

Nebraska Volunteer Infantry Company To Hold Reunion

A reunion here May 4, 5 and 6 will bring together members of Company B, First Nebraska U.S. Volunteer infantry who fought in the Philippine insurrection.

Twenty-nine members are still living. The reunion headquarters will be the Lincoln hotel. Perry Jewett is in charge of arrangements.

The company was organized in April 1898 and arrived in the Philippines on July 17 of the same year.

A part of the First Nebraska regiment, the company was in action from the beginning of the Insurrection in February 1899 until relieved in June, 1899.

Three members of the company were killed in action and two died of disease. Six were awarded the Silver Star medal and about 40 were awarded the Philippine Congressional Medal of Honor. Thirteen were wounded and received the Purple Heart. The company, at full strength, totaled 107 men.

Car Line Tax, Oil Lease Bills Passed

A car line tax bill and an oil lease measure passed the legislature Wednesday on final reading.

The list:

L.B. 436, Babcock-Kotouc-Prohs. Authorizing appointment of trustee for contingent remaindermen in oil and gas lease negotiations. 41-0.

L.B. 508, Revenue committee. Providing that assessment of tax on car lines shall run against operator as well as owner. 43-0.

Miss Ekblad Graduates From Nursing School

E. E. Ekblad returned Tuesday from Moline and Rock Island, Ill., where he attended the graduation exercises Sunday and Monday of the Lutheran hospital school of nursing in Moline, for the class of 1951, of which his daughter, Dorothy, was a member.

Final graduation program was held in Trinity Lutheran church, Moline. About 1,000 persons attended. The training course covered three years.

While in the tri-cities Ekblad had the opportunity to see the mighty Mississippi river in flood stage. The river is the highest since 1882.

A great part of the water front of Rock Island has been sand bagged with 3,000 bags as a protection should the river reach the 19 foot stage which would flood the business portion of the cities.

Many business houses four or more blocks away from the waterfront have been sand bagged as a precaution.

Considerable damage has already been done where the river has overflowed. Much farm land is inundated.

Coast-Coast Speakers At Medics Meet

Guest faculty at the Nebraska State Medical association meeting in Omaha April 30-May 3, will come from coast to coast.

The physician faculty will come from Boston, Mass., Chicago, Ill., and Seattle, Wash., according to Dr. C. H. Sheets, Cozad, president of the state organization. The Omaha meeting will be the eighty-third annual session of the group.

Members of the visiting faculty are Drs. Mirle A. Kellett, Richard H. Overholt and William A Meissner from the New England Deaconess hospital at Boston; Drs. Robert L. Schmitz, Henry L. Schmitz, Janet E. Towne and Herbert E. Schmitz from the Stritch school of medicine at Loyola University at Chicago; and Drs. Wade Volwiler, Quin B. DeMarsh and E. A. Addington from the University of Washington school of medicine at Seattle.

Dr. John Cline of San Francisco, president of the American Medical association will be the principal speaker at the main banquet with his subject "The Problems Confronting Medicine in the Immediate Future."

First hand information will be given to the medics on the financial plight of the University of Nebraska college of medicine by Chancellor R. G. Gustavson at a noon luncheon. Dr. Donald J. Cowling, president emeritus of Carleton college, Northfield, Minn., will also speak on "Our American Heritage."

Young Case Argument Set May 28

High Court Fixes Dates For Briefs On Ouster Issue

The state supreme court agreed Wednesday to rule on Gov. Val Peterson's ouster of State Liquor Commissioner Blaine Young, Omaha.

Gov. Peterson ordered Young to surrender the office on the grounds that Young's Omaha insurance business with liquor licensees was a violation of state law.

The law the governor referred to is a statute prohibiting any member of the liquor commission from accepting "emoluments" through the possession of the office. The record has shown that Young had a profit of over $2,000 in 1950 from insurance business of Omaha license holders.

The court, after accepting jurisdiction in the case, gave Attorney General C. S. Beck two weeks in which to file briefs supporting the stands of the governor and the attorney general's office.

Young's attorney, Francis Gaines of Omaha, then will have two weeks in which to file reply briefs.

After that will come oral arguments on both sides. These are set for May 28.

Stipulation Offered

In the stipulation the attorneys offered the court, there was included a letter of Gaines to Young in which Gaines took a different view of the law than the attorney general, who advised Peterson that grounds for Young's ouster existed.

In his letter Gaines told Young that he (Gaines) was of the opinion that "no violation of the statute in question has taken place by reason of your receipt indirectly of commissions from insurance companies resulting from the purchase of policies by persons subject to the provisions of this act, since the policies were not purchased through any solicitation or action on your part and there is no connection between the transactions involving the insurance and any official act on your part. In my opinion any other construction of the statute would be unreasonable, unjust and not in accordance with the intention of the legislature."

No Intentional Violation

Young has strongly asserted that he did not solicit any insurance business from Omaha license holders during his time in office and that he had not in any way willingly or intentionally violated the law.

This led to some attorneys saying the question now to be solved is one of a technical violation and if such is grounds for removal.

Young refused to surrender his office and last Monday showed up at his desk early and immediately did an act of official business, although the governor had dismissed him last Saturday.

The attorney general then promptly moved for an action in the supreme court asking that the court declare the office vacant and direct the ouster of Young.

Governor Peterson, saying that so far as he was concerned now Young was "out of office," named Tuesday G. H. Rydman of Omaha as a successor to Young. However, Rydman was not prepared to take office until June 1, provided Young is the loser in the supreme court test.

Dr. Ryder Reconsiders Resignation

. . . 'Pressure' Brought

Dr. Frank Ryder Thursday was reconsidering his resignation as state health director.

The Grand Island man who resigned several weeks ago after some legislative criticism Wednesday said there has been "some pressure" brought upon him to reconsider his action.

"I have it under consideration," he added.

He said he was not at liberty to tell where the pressure was coming from.

Work is Challenging

"I have enjoyed the work and it is challenging to any man," he asserted, adding that there were several health department projects that he would lke to see through.

Gov. Val Peterson had submitted Dr. Ryder's reappointment to the legislature for confirmation, then had his name withdrawn at Dr. Ryder's request.

State health department employes have lined up behind their chief, who is staying on the job until a successor is named.

Senator Arthur Carmody, Trenton, budget committee chairman, had said that Dr. Ryder was a "hard man to get information from," following a budget hearing.

It was the first budget hearing that Dr. Ryder had attended.

Putneys, Wheeler Awarded Advanced Study Fellowships

Outstanding fellowships which will permit them to continue their advanced studies have been awarded three former University of Nebraska students.

Mr. and Mrs. Snell Putney of Lincoln have received a $4,000 fellowship from the Doherty Foundation of Princeton University which will permit them to do a year of field work in Mexico. They are currently studying at the University of Oregon. Mrs. Putney received her M.A. degree in sociology last summer at Nebraska, and Mr. Putney the M.A. in philosophy.

Wayne Wheeler, who received the Masters degree in sociology at the University of Nebraska in 1949, has been awarded a Swedish Government Fellowship for field work and study in Sweden next year. Wheeler, formerly of Crete but now of Lincoln, is currently a teaching assistant at the University of Missouri sociology department.

'Boom Town' Sidney Reports 33% Rise In Business Firms

SIDNEY, Neb.—(AP)—Boom town—that's the best description of Sidney these days.

Capital of a new western Nebraska oil empire, Sidney's vast new business opportunities have fostered a 33 per cent increase in the number of business firms in the last three years.

Employment has jumped 54 per cent and another 13 per cent increase is expected within the next few months.

From a housing standpoint, Sidney is bursting at the seams. The 1950 population of 4,895 (up from 3,338 in 1940) already makes Sidney the state's 20th largest city.

Sidney's boom statistics were gathered by the Nebraska state employment service in conjunction with the city and the chamber of commerce.

They show 333 business firms in the city compared with 252 in 1948. There are 2,320 workers now compared with 1,506 three years ago.

A substantial part of the increase comes from the oil industry itself, the oil firms and companies offering oil supplies and services.

emplofment service in conjunc- 165 persons. Twelve oil service and supply businesses have 62 workers.

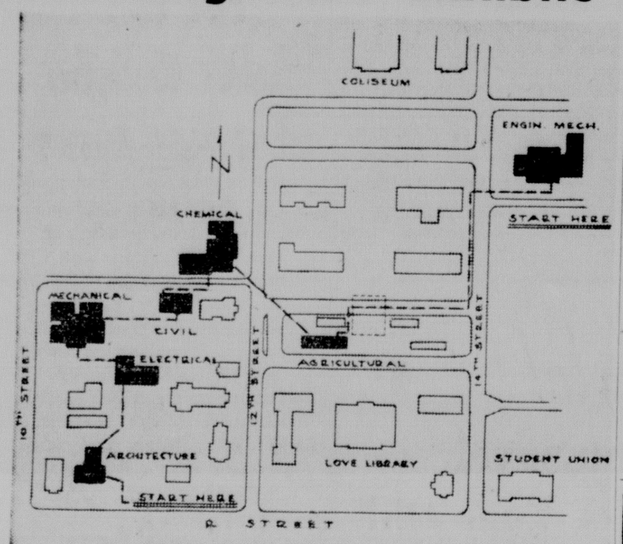
N.U. Engineers' Exhibits Go On Display Thursday



TRAFFIC ROUTE FOR N. U. ENGINEERS DISPLAY—This map shows suggested traffic route for visitors of the University of Nebraska engineering and architecture open house. Open house will be from 2 to 10 p.m. Thursday. There is no admission charge.

Visitors at the 39th annual open house of the N.U. engineering and architecture college Thursday will see painstakingly-made exhibits which illustrate textbook principles of science.

The entire college, about 800 students, has been preparing dozens of exhibits since last fall They will show novel applications of science in the fields of agriculture, architectural, chemical, civil, electrical and mechanical engineering mechanics.

The displays will be open from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. in seven campus buildings. The traffic route begins at architectural hall, Eleventh and R.

Rockets, Saucers

Some of the things visitors will see:

Rockets and flying saucers in action, propelled by liquid air.

The steps in sugar refining—including a lemon drop machine.

Stilts which raise a tractor high enough so that it can be used in almost full-grown corn for spraying of the corn borer.

Lincoln-Model

An automatic telephone system, showing what happens when you dial your telephone and why you get a busy signal without the aid of an operator.

A model of Lincoln showing ways to meet traffic problems and a project demonstrating flood control as it might be practiced in this vicinity.

In addition there will be many more exhibits designed to show the teaching program of the college, and the problems which engineering has solved or is now struggling to solve.

The open house was planned and built entirely by engineering students and is free and open to the public. It is traditionally held on the first of a two-day engineers' Week. The second day features a convocation, field day and honors banquet. This year for the first time it is part of a College Days program in which nearly all the departments of the university are taking part.

Bids Opened On 4 City Projects Totaling $33,200

Bids were received at the city hall Wednesday for four spring projects by the engineering department at a total estimated cost of $33,200.

The largest single job will be the construction of a water feeder main from Thirty-third and Melrose to Forty-fourth and Bancroft. On theestimated $19,000 project George L. Vlasnik bid $18,778, Chambers Construction Company $18,990, Dobson and Robinson $18,095 and H. R. Bookstrom Construction $18,350.

New Park Entrance

Next in cost comes the paving of a new park entrance on M street from Twenty-first to Twenty-second. The job was estimated at $8,900 with Abel Construction company bidding $8,890.75 and Dobson Construction company $8,797.90.

On a water district in Lenox from Fifty-sixth to Cotner boulevard and Fifty-sixth from Lenox to M Vlasnik bid $3,376 and Bookstrom $3,300. The estimate was $3,400.

On a sewer district in the same area Vlasnik bid $1,883, Chambers $1,890 and Bookstrom $1,800. The estimate was $1,900.

Cigaret, Beer Theft

Theft of six cartons of cigarets and nearly two cases of beer from Dot's Inn over the week-end was reported to the county sheriff's office by Clem Gaughan, owner of the tavern. Entrance was made by breaking a glass in the north door.

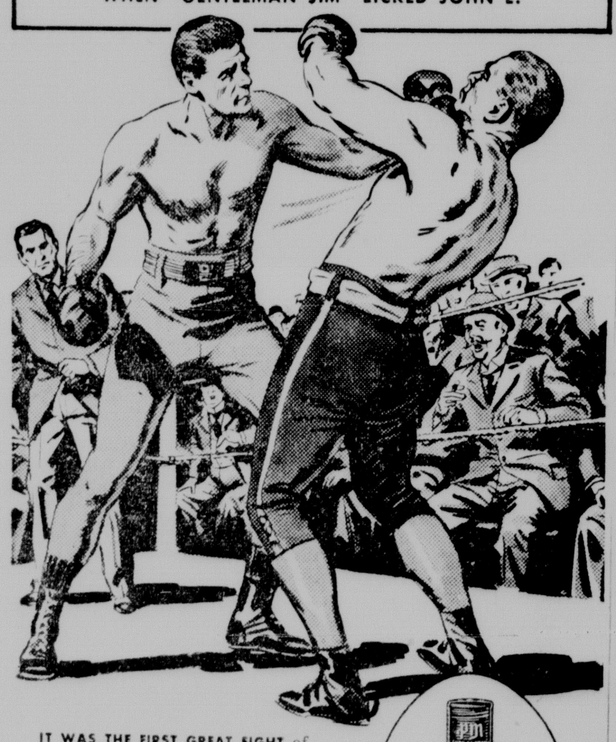
Pleasant Moments in sports BY Bob Considine

WHEN "GENTLEMAN JIM" LICKED JOHN L.



IT WAS THE FIRST GREAT FIGHT of the modern era of boxing. John L. Sullivan, the Boston Strong Boy, last of the bare-knuckle champions, was meeting Gentleman Jim Corbett.

For 20 rounds, Corbett, the dancing master, punished the great John L. at will. In the twenty-first, the old champ went down and out. When they revived him, he walked to the ropes and faced the crowd. "I fought once too often," he bellowed, "and if I had to get licked I'm glad it was by an American. Yours truly, John L. Sullivan!"

Varsity-Alum Game To Conclude N.U. Cage Practices

Five Lettermen, 'Fair Freshman' Group Out For Spring Drills

UNIVERSITY of Nebraska spring basketball practice will be concluded with a Varsity-Alumni game Saturday night, May 5.

Lettermen back from last year's squad are Jim Buchanan, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Joe Good, Lincoln; Bob Mercier, Lincoln; Bud Ward, Plainfield, Ind., and Norm Wilnes, North Platte.

Coach Good considers his overall freshman material as only fair. However, newcomers Bill Johnson, 6-7 center from Lincoln; Jim Abernathy, 6-1 forward from Scottsbluff; Fred Seger, 6-2½ guard from Omaha, Don Weber, 6-3 forward from Esterville, Ia.; Bud Exstrom, 6-0 guard from Holdrege, and Clark Smaha, 6-1½ forward from Chicago, Ill., will play an important role next fall.

PIERCE SUCCESSOR

Johnson, former Teachers high star, is being groomed for the center post left vacant by the graduation of Bob Pierce.

The Husker coach feels that the guard positions will be improved over last year with veteran will be strengthened as a result of the new freshman rule. But he declined to name any individuals who are expected to come to Nebraska.

Jim Snyder, Al Blessing and Andy Bunten, all out for other spring sports, will report for drills next fall.

The greatest need, Good feels, is for more height and experience at the center and forward positions.

"At the center post," he explained, "we need another tall man to compete with Johnson in practice sessions so that both men will know what to do when they run up against tall men under game conditions."

Good believes that the club Buchanan back and Mercier more experienced.

Soos Crush Cards, 11-5; Sky Sox Victors

SIOUX CITY, Ia.—(AP)—With Gip Dickens powering the attack on a pair of lusty homers and a triple, the Sioux City Soos crushed Omaha, 11-5, here Wednesday night in the first 1951 meeting of the arch rivals of the 1950 campaign.

Dickens had seven runs batted in for the game, just one short of the league record for postwar competition.

Pierce In Cage Draft

NEW YORK—(AP) — Bob Pierce, University of Nebraska cager, was one of 86 college basketball players drafted by the ten teams in the National Basketball Association.

Indianapolis put its ticket on Pierce.

Other selections involving Big Seven players listed in the order in which the players were picked by teams:

Big League Nebraskans

What Nebraskans did in the Big Leagues Wednesday:

NELLIE FOX (Lincoln A's)—Collected four hits in six trips to the plate including his fourth 1951 double. Nellie scored three runs and drove in one as his White Sox split a twin-bill with the Brownies of St. Louis. Nellie is currently batting .407 for third spot in both leagues.

LOU LIMMER (Lincoln A's)—As a pinch hitter for the Philadelphia Athletics, Lou hit into a double play in the ninth inning against the Yankees.

The Firing Line

by Norris Anderson, SPORTS EDITOR, THE STAR

Scouting The Sooners And Gophers

AMONG eight other hurdles, Operation Oklahoma looms as the game Cornhusker football fans would most like to see won.

For that reason we're using a scouting report on the Sooners, sent our way by a chap who will always be our favorite radio personality. You all remember Jack Wells.

Jack Wells

Jack, who used to broadcast Husker games as well as rank as one of the midwest's best-liked musical entertainers, is now doing television shows for Station WKY in Oklahoma City.

Accompanied by ex-Lincolnite John Haberlan, now a salesman with WKY, Jack watched the recent spring classic between the Oklahoma Alums and Varsity. It is similar in stature to the Huskers' spring finale between the current crew and the oldtimers.

The Sooner Alums won, 27-21.

Jack, our scout, reports that the "varsity showed nothing the first three quarters except some good runs by Billy Vessels and Joe Gaynor, a hotshot soph backfield prospect."

"The passing of Eddie Crowder, a fine quarterback, was another varsity feature.

Paced by an "All-Big Seven" backfield of Leon Heath, Lindell Pearson, Darrel Royal and Junior Thomas, the Alums scored their four touchdowns mainly on running plays and plenty of Varsity fumbling.

With Crowder throwing two long touchdown passes and Vessels unraveling a long run, the Varsity almost caught the Alums in the closing seconds. Vessels, in fact, carried to the Alum two-yard line as the game ended.

No less than eight former All-Americans, all of whom have been playing pro ball since, were in the Alums lineup. So you can judge that the Oklahoma varsity of 1951 should be up for national attention again.

"Popular opinion down here seems to be that Coach Bud Wilkinson wouldn't have stayed on if he didn't think he'd have a world-beater coming up again," our Agent Wells informs us.

Jackie adds that the Varsity blocking and tackling, throughout most of the afternoon, looked like mid-season caliber.

Among the soph standouts noticed by Wells were Billy Bookout, a great defensive back; Buck McPhail, a crashing fullback, and Kay Keller, a demon pass-snagger.

WE have on the desk an appraisal of his Minnesota team by none other than Coach Wes Fesler.

HUSTLE & SPIRIT—Excellent.
NATURAL ABILITY—Well below the Big Ten average.
FINESSE & POLISH—Well below the Big Ten average.
DEPTH OF SQUAD—Well below the Big Ten average; very difficult to find enough capable men for complete offensive, defensive units.
OUTSTANDING INDIVIDUALS—None by Big Ten standards.
SQUAD SPEED—Well below Big Ten average.
ADAPTABILITY—Three or four individuals show possibilities of developing into good, average Big 10 players.

In the absence of the speed and over-all maneuverability that Fesler likes in his squads to ably execute his combined T and single-wing offense, he plans to throw the ball a great deal next fall. This intent has been plainly evident in his every-day practice sessions which ordinarily include a lengthy scrimmage.

While the 18 lettermen available to Wes and his aides for spring practice have been very much in evidence, a number of reserves have found a "new lease on life" under the new regime and have moved up into contention for varsity positions. Added to these are six newcomers up from the 1950 freshman squad. They are Marty Engh, 6 foot, 180 pound right halfback from Montevideo; Paul Giel, 5 feet 10 inch, 180 pound quarterback from Winona; Mel Holme, 5 foot 10 inch, 200 pound fullback from Stambaugh, Michigan; Dick Hugunin, 6 foot, 200 pound offensive guard from Jackson; Del May, 6 foot 2 inch, 195 pound end from Milwaukee, Wisconsin; and Willis Wood, 6 foot 1 inch, 200 pound center from St. Cloud.

P.S.—Looks like Oklahoma and Minnesota will be tartars, eh, Glassford?

RICHIE OUT AT SECOND—Richie Ashburn, Phillies outfielder, formerly of Tilden, Neb., is tagged out at second base by Al Dark of the New York Giants in Thursday's game at Shibe Park. Ashburn blasted out a grounder to right field and tried to stretch it into a double but was thrown out. Umpire Boggess calls the play. (AP Wirephoto.)

Voluntary Retirement Sought By One Time Ace Rex Barney

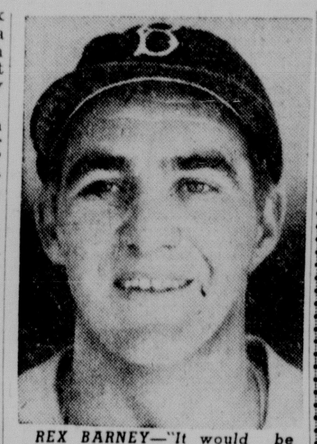
BROOKLYN—(AP)—Pitcher Rex Barney, once regarded as a great prospect by the Brooklyn Dodgers, asked Wednesday night to be placed on the voluntarily retired list.

"I know that I cannot pitch for the Dodgers or any other major league club right now," the 26-year-old righthander wrote to Buzzy Bavasi, vice president of the Dodgers.

"I think that it would be better for everyone if I tried my luck in another business," continued Barney, who pitched a no-hit, no-run game against the Giants three years ago.

Barney was signed out of Creighton Prep, Omaha, in 1943. He won nine and lost eight in 1949, but won only two and lost one last season, starting only once.

Bavasi said the club would reserve decision on Barney's request for a few days.



REX BARNEY—"It would be better for everyone if I tried my luck in another business . . ."

A's, Bruins Try Again Thursday ... Off Wednesday

Rained out again Wednesday night, the Lincoln A's and Des Moines Bruins will attempt a doubleheader at Sherman field tonight, starting at 6:30.

It will mark the third straight attempt for the Bruins and A's to stage a game. Dutch Romberger will pitch the first game for the A's, with Elwood Carey slated for the nightcap.

The A's leave Friday for a junket to Des Moines and Omaha. They will return to Sherman field May 3 for a three-game stand against Sioux City.

Hendrickson After Repeat In 100, 220 Events At State Meet

Lincoln highs' Brien Hendrickson and track Coach Bill Pfeiff have decided to forego the possibility of cracking a record in the 440 and will try for points in the 100, 220 and the relay come the State meet.

Hendrickson, of course, is the lad who last year plucked off gold medals in the two dash events but since that time, has been converted into a quarter-miler.

"We'll need the points that Brien can give us and besides, the order of events in the State meet is not conducive to running a man in the 440 and then proceeding to enter him in the 220," said Pfeiff. Both events are concurrent.

On the other hand one must not overlook the possibility of Mr. Hendrickson pushing the dash marks, particularly the furlong.

Bombers Abandon Twelve Men Aboard Sacks During Game

PHILADELPHIA —(INS)—Ken Heintzelman and the Philadelphia Phillies sent the Giants down to their seventh straight defeat Wednesday, winning 2 to 1 as the slumping New Yorkers left 12 men on base.

Richie Ashburn singled for the first Philly run in the first inning and Gran Hamner doubled for the winning counter in the fourth to tag Larry Jansen with the loss.

The Giants' only run off Heintzelman's eight-hit pitching came in the seventh on a walk, Clint Hartung's single, and a long fly by Ray Noble. The Giants loaded the bases with one out on two other occasions, but each time Hartung popped up.

YANKS 4, A's 0

NEW YORK— (AP) — Frank (Spec) Shea, erstwhile sore-armed righthander, took a long step forward on the comeback road when he pitched the New York Yankees to a 4-0 triumph over the Philadelphia Athletics. The shutout was the A's second in succession and the defeat their sixth in a row.

The Yankees, in winning their fifth game at home with a loss, were hardly terrifying at bat. They were held to seven hits by Lefty Alex Kellner but benefited by half a dozen walks. They picked up a run in the second inning, two more in the fourth and gained their final tally in the fifth.

CHISOX 8-4, BROWNS 6-7

CHICAGO —(AP)— The Chicago White Sox divided a double header with the St. Louis Browns here, winning the opener 8-6 and dropping the nightcap 7-4 in a contest played under the lights from the second inning on.

The defeat in the second tilt was the first suffered by the White Sox at the hands of the St. Louisans in 13 meetings this year. They whipped the Brownies nine straight in spring exhibitions.

Al Zarilla, Eddie Robinson, Ken Wood and Jim Delsing hammered homers in the opener. The game was deadlocked three times at 2-2, 4-4 and 6-6. The White Sox snapped the final tie with a two run rally in the seventh.

REDS 4, CUBS 3

CINCINNATI — (INS) — Ted Kluszewski's two-run homer in the eighth inning gave Cincinnati a 4 to 3 win over the Chicago Cubs and snapped the Reds' three-game losing streak.

The Reds' two other runs also were scored on home runs. Pinchhitter Connie Ryan and Joe Adcock each blasted a round-tripper in the fifth.

BRAVES 6, DODGERS 5

BROOKLYN — (AP) — Sam Jethroe's ninth-inning homer with one on and two out gave the Boston Braves a 6 to 5 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets field. Brooklyn had taken a 5-4 lead in the eighth when Jackie Robinson, apparently caught in a rundown, was allowed to score from third after the umpires had ruled interference on the part of Walker Cooper, Boston catcher.

CARDS 4, BUCS 0

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Rookie Tom Poholsky, aided by good defensive work, hurled the Cardinals to a 4 to 0 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates. The young righthander gave up two hits and two walks. Enos Slaughter homered in the sixth for one of the Redbird tallies.

Miss Wiebe and Miss Berry were chosen from the surviving six with Miss Calhoun as an alternate.

Navy Cage Captaincy To Davis

While at Northeast, big Fritz held various records in the shot put and the discus, plus gaining all-state honors on both the Rocket basketball and football teams. Davis spent one year as a freshman at the University of Nebraska.

At Annapolis, Davis was instrumental in Navy's upset of Army on the gridiron and dumped the winning basket that enabled the Middies to edge the West Pointers 62-59 in March.

He is the son of Prof. and Mrs. H. P. Davis of 3715 Holdrege in Lincoln.

Hollywood Reds Worked Through Unions

Ex-Director 'Tells All' To Congress

Commies Had Three Ideas In Campaign

WASHINGTON — (AP) —Director Edward Dmytryk, breaking a silence which sent him to jail in 1950, said Wednesday that communism has tried to capture Hollywood through guilds and unions there.

He said first it wanted to tap big Hollywood incomes through a "tithing system."

Control Content.

But "most important," Dmytryk testified, was the party's determination to "control the content of motion pictures" by taking over the writing and acting guilds and the unions.

Wanted C.I.O.

Rapidly Dmytryk outlined the reds' campaign. He said they hoped to have the CIO come in and take over all Hollywood's guilds and unions.

"They felt they could move around more freely within the framework of the CIO than the AFL," Dmytryk testified.

FARMER, FBI AGENT OR ENGINEER?—Shown above is part of a class of 28 students attending the second annual Career Conference at Lincoln high school, Tuesday through Thursday. The conference, an outgrowth of student interest in Modern Problems class for seniors, is the climax to unit studies in vocations. About 450 seniors are attending classes in 25 vocational areas such as nursing, engineering, scientific research and railroading. Special consultants in the above class in agriculture are George Round, University of Nebraska director of public relations, and Dr. Ephriam Hixson, professor of entomology, U. of N. college of agricture. High School Career Conference Draws 450 Interested Seniors

Instructors for modern problems classes are: Mrs. Ruth Dodge, Miss Florence Jenkins, Mrs. Alice Updegraft, Mrs. Ruth Pinney and William Pfeiff.

Conference periods were so arranged that most students could attend more than one session in different fields. Average class enrollment was 30.

LeZotte was in Brazil two years with the Institute of Inter-American Affairs.

Boy Scouts Start Survey On Housing

Boy Scouts started their survey of Lincoln's housing situation Wednesday evening on the heels of the completion of a survey by the Housing Authority.

The scouts will attempt to determine what rental units are available now in the city and what the situation might be in the near future.

Their survey is being conducted by the Economic Research Institute of Madison, Wis. It is aimed to determine the number of sub-standard and otherwise poor rental units.

Meanwhile, Mayor Victor E. Anderson said he will discuss with the council at its special meeting Thursday the advisability of the city applying now for a defense classification for the city.

The application would be made with a committee of the defense production authority in Washington. If such a classification were granted it would make the city eligible for federally insured loans on defense housing units.

Combat Vets Dock Sunday

... 1,300 Marines

SAN DIEGO, Cal. — (INS)— The marine corps announced Wednesday that 1,300 veterans of the First marine division will return to San Diego Sunday after nine months of combat in Korea.

The marines, comprising both battle casualties and men returning under the rotation plan, will arrive aboard the USS Sgt. Sylvester Antalok.

San Diego is going all out on the homecoming celebration. The transport is to be met at the entrance to the bay and escorted to the dock by fire boats, private yachts and boats carrying bands.

Once ashore, everything will be on the city. The 1,300 will be given tickets entitling them to free meals in downtown restaurants, free admission to theaters, free bus transportation and other courtesies.

Bill Proposes More Power For Governor On Liquor Enforcement

Additional power and responsibility in connection with enforcement of liquor laws would be placed in the hands of the governor under a bill Sen. Arthur Carmody of Trenton had prepared Wednesday for introduction at this session of the legislature. It will require committee sponsorship or a request by the governor.

Other sections of the law outline actions which a commissioner may not take and describe the prohibition of gifts, gratuities, emoluments or employment from anyone subject to provisions of the law such as licensees.

Carmody said he would ask Gov. Val Peterson if he, the governor, wanted to introduce the bill.

"The man who appoints should have the power of dismissal at his discretion," said Carmody.

Favors Director

Personally, he said, he would prefer a state liquor director and not a commission, with the governor having power to dismiss the director at his discretion.

But, added Carmody, he thinks in any event the governor should have the power of dismissal as set out in the proposed bill.

Collectors Asking For New Garbage Can Regulations

In this modern day and age it is not surprising to see the garbage can up on the list for government control.

And that's what could happen if Lincoln's city government reacts favorably to a request by the United Garbage Association, Inc., for an ordinance covering such cans.

The city's waste disposal men want the law to stipulate that the cans shall be no larger than 22 gallons capacity, have a tight fitting lid and be secured in place so they can't be pushed over by dogs.

Utica Couple Have 'Unwelcome' Guest

UTICA, Neb. (AP). When Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wellman of Utica got home after being away several days, they found a broken bedroom window, torn curtain, a picture and vase broken and a rug partially rolled up. The vandal turned out to be a pheasant which apparently thrashed around before dying of injuries received in crashing the window.

Carpenter Says He's Now Really "Rarin' to Go!"

How bad can things get? After all when your job is carpentry and requires lots of climbing up and down in all kinds of weather, you can't be bogged down, slowed to a walk, by aches and pains. Your job suffers, your interest in life suffers, and you start feeling years older than you are.

When Mr. T. G. Pude Morlan, Rural Route No. 1, Monett, Missouri, ran into just this situation, though, he decided to act fast, get back on the road to feeling right again. He'd heard how HADACOL had helped folks who were suffering aches and pains caused by a lack of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron and he decided to see what it would do for him. The wonderful results of this decision can only be told properly in Mr. Morlan's own written words, sent to us voluntarily.

He says: "Just a line in regard to HADACOL. I am a carpenter by trade, have worked out in all kinds of weather which lately caused me considerable aches and pains and stiffness. I started taking HADACOL, so today, I am on my eighth bottle and am working every day. I am 58 years old and can climb up and down on my job. I have a good appetite, sleep good at night and I wake up mornings raring to go. I started feeling better when I had taken but 4 bottles. So I intend to go on taking your wonderful product. I have recommended HADACOL to all my friends, and I have four who told me they would give it a trial at once. So, as I am very well known in and around Monett Missouri, you are welcome to use my name in any way as you choose in regard to your wonderful product."

So the letters go, day after day, from state after state, telling of the real, genuine help that HADACOL has brought to folks like Mr. Morlan. For, you see, HADACOL supplies more than the minimum daily requirements of Vitamins B_1, B_2, Niacin and Iron to correct the very cause of aches and pains when due to a lack of these very elements. These elements, plus helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium, are in a special liquid form, already dissolved for quick, easy absorption in the system.

No wonder thousands say that only HADACOL gives you that "Wonderful Hadacol Feeling." Won't you give this wonderful formula a chance to help you, to give you new hope for the future, to stop your being a burden to yourself and to your friends and family? Remember HADACOL is recommended by many doctors and is sold on a strict money-back guarantee. Only $1.25 in the trial size; only $3.50 in the large economy family size.

Ferguson Hall Dedication Is Saturday

Formal dedication of Ferguson hall, the new electrical engineering building on the University of Nebraska campus will be Saturday, April 28, at 11 a.m.

Chancellor R. G. Gustavson will make the formal dedication.

Speakers will be O. J. Ferguson, dean emeritus of the engineering college and the man for whom the building is named, Gov. Val Peterson, LeRoy Welch, president of the board of regents and Dean Roy M. Green of the engineering college.

Dean Ferguson broke the ground for the new building, Sept. 25, 1948 and it was completed in November of 1950. Heavy power equipment was moved into the north wing of the building last summer and that part has been in use since September. The electrical engineering school moved into Ferguson hall, Nov. 21, 1950.

Built at a cost of $600,000, the building has facilities for classroom and laboratory work in both power and communication phases of electrical engineering.

Delinquent Taxpayers Get Letters

To those receiving them, this will be the third and last such notice. If the taxes are not paid by June 15, the sheriff's office may seize property to make them up.

Of $105,930 in distress warrants—another phrase for back taxes—issued by the county treasurer's office since Sept. 1, 1950, $39,724 has been collected.

Of the remainder, $16,987 is uncollectable because the delinquents are either dead, out of the state, or cannot be reached.

$50,000 Suit Filed As Result Of Blast

The Central Electric and Gas company has been sued for $50,000 by Katie E. Coulter, Lincoln, who contends a gas explosion in which she was injured was due to the negligence of the company.

Her suit, filed in District court, alleges the explosion resulted from the inadequacy of a gas meter. The explosion occurred Oct. 13, 1948 at 1531 Q street, the petition states.

Ask $20,000 Damages

A New York City couple, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Appel, filed companion lawsuits for a total of $20,000 in District court Wednesday against the Yellow Cab company, Norvel Emery and Joseph A. Richards.

They allege that negligence of both Emery, the cab driver, and Richards, driver of another car, caused a two-car accident at Ninth and J last May 2.

The plaintiffs state they were passengers in the cab, and were returning from a ball game at Sherman Field.

Army Plans Cut In May, June Calls

20,000 Figure Cited As Rotation Speeded

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Army plans to cut May and June draft calls to 20,000 each and to bring home 20,000 Korean veterans a month starting in May were disclosed Wednesday by the house appropriations committee.

Meanwhile, the navy said it will seek nearly 146,000 enlistees over the next 14 months and senate-house conferees on the draft-universal training bill agreed to increase the present service period from 21 to 24 months.

Confusion Created.

The 20,000-man draft figure for May and June given to the house committee April 10 created some confusion in that, since that date, the army has cut the May draft call from 60,000 to 40,000.

It was not clear whether this represented a change in plans. But the defense department said outcome of the current communist drive in Korea will determine whether army draft calls must be boosted in the weeks ahead.

Hitherto secret testimony made public by the committee showed that the army already has exceeded the 1,400,000-man strength set for it by July 1.

Dr. Staker Speaker—Speaker at the Lions club meeting Thursday at the chamber of commerce will be Dr. E. V. Staker, agronomist at the college of agriculture. Dr. Staker recently returned from Japan where he spent 26 months as a scientific consultant of the National Resources Section.

Britain Asks U.S. For More Raw Materials

Morrison Warns Of A Slow-Down

Acheson Reply Is Sympathetic

LONDON—(AP)—The British labor government, shaken by left wing thunderings, called for American help Wednesday to check a raw materials crisis threatening the nation's economy. The call got a prompt response in Washington.

Morrison

U. S. Secretary Acheson pledged at a Washington news conference that the United States will take "full account of essential needs" of friendly nations in allocating scarce raw materials.

The United States will go on pressing for increased production and for efficient use of existing stocks, Acheson said.

Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison warned in a speech before the American chamber of commerce here that Britain's living standards, her economy and even her rearmament drive will decline unless she gets more essential supplies.

He said the government will cut living standards before the rearmament program if the scarcities continue. He pleaded for the United States to help.

Mrs. Lewis Is Named To Head Presbyterian Women's Group

Mrs. George Lewis of Lincoln was re-elected as president of the Nebraska City Presbyterial society at the annual meeting Wednesday at the Second Presbyterian church.

During the all-day meeting attended by more than 175 women from 29 southeastern Nebraska Presbyterian churches, Miss Susan Schock member of the Warren Wilson junior college staff in Swannanoe, North Carolina, gave the keynote address and later told of the work carried on at the Presbyterian college.

She also explained to the group, the importance of their two scholarships in advancing the standards in the backward mountain areas.

Mrs. H. A. White, synodical president, spoke on the topic, "National Council Objectives" during the morning session and Mrs. Charles H. Anderson reported on the work of the group in social education and action.

Rev. Rex Knowles, director of the Presbyterian Student house on the University of Nebraska campus, outlined the activities carried on in the student organization.

During the afternon meetings, panel discussion on the importance of the world service work carried on by the Presbyterial was held by Mrs. R. M. Snyder, Mrs. Daniel Moser, Mrs. George R. Froehlich and Mrs. M. H. Usher.

Mrs. Virgil Perry of Plattsmouth, vice president.

Mrs. L. B. Lunde, of Lincoln, secretary.

Mrs. George Froehlich of Falls City, treasurer.

Mrs. Glen Rice, of Seward, literature.

Mrs. Marlowe Westerhoff of Alexandria, missionary education.

Mrs. Charles Anderson of Lincoln; social education and action.

Mrs. J. W. Spellman of Adams, stewardship.

Mrs. P. J. Junker of Fairbury, children's advisor.

Mrs. Merle G. Jones of Beatrice, Christian education.

Mrs. Virgil Perry of Plattsmouth, membership.

Mrs. J. J. Williamson of Lincoln, Westminster advisor.

Mrs. J. A. Petrea of Pawnee City, missionary ocrrespondent.

Mrs. H. C. Struve of Deshler, White Cross.

Mrs. M. H. Usher of Lincoln, world service.

Town Officials, City Council Invited To Social Security Talk

Lancaster county commissioners have invited board members of all towns in the county and the Lincoln city council to attend a meeting Monday night concerning extension of social security benefits to county and municipal employes.

Also present will be State Tax Commissioner Philip K. Johnson and a representative from the social security field office here.

The legislature recently passed an enabling act which would permit county and municipal employes to be brought under the social security plan.

At a mass meeting two weeks ago, approximately 175 Lancaster county employes overwhelmingly indicated they wish to be included within the plan. It would cost the county about $10,000 a year.

Agricultural Conservation Plans Started

. . . In Two Counties

Work got under way in Lancaster and Richardson counties Tuesday on developing the 1952 agricultural conservation program. Department of agriculture agencies in the two counties are the first in the state to make their recommendations to the state PMA committee for changes in the 1952 program.

The state PMA committee, in a letter sent to counties Friday, asked for recommendations for changes in the handbook for 1952 which will set out specifications and payments for PMA-approved soil conservation practices. The state committee will make recommendations to the national committee on strength of recommendations made by counties.

Meeting in Lincoln were the county PMA committee, Chairman Albert Francke, Pat O'Halloran and Richard Lefferdink; nearly all the 72 PMA community committeemen; County Conservationist Emery Nelson and his SCS technicians; Lancaster soil conservation district supervisors; District Conservationist D. E. Hutchinson; PMA Fieldman William Mann and George Hiatt of the FHA.

Discussion was held on the practices for the 1952 national handbook, and the group made seven recommendations it felt would be an improvement for the natural resources conservation program.

Goodall Is Named Head State Group

His election came at the group's organizational meeting at the state capitol building.

The commission was appointed by Gov. Peterson to assist the state's small businessmen to obtain defense contracts and materials for non-defense production.

Morton Steinhart, Nebraska City.
Nathan Gold, Lincoln.
Frank Dicus, Fremont.
Don Devries, Lincoln.
George Schaefer, Beatrice.
Clarence Kirkland, Omaha.
J. R. McBride, Minden.

Goodall was not present. Also absent were William N. Mitten, Fremont, and Karl Vogel, Omaha.

The commission also met briefly with Gov. Peterson and decided to hold its next meeting in Lincoln.

The commission is working with the state resources division. C. V. Price, division chief, is commission secretary.

Rita May Ask For Divorce Without Seeing Aly Again

NEW YORK — (AP) — Film star Rita Hayworth intends to get a divorce or legal separation from Prince Aly Kahn without seeing him again, the New York Post said Wednesday. In France, the prince termed divorce reports "ridiculous."

The Post story, by Columnist Earl Wilson, said the red-haired actress will acknowledge in a formal statement this week that her storybook romance with the prince is about over.

All this appeared to be news to the prince, who Wednesday in Cannes said "there never has been any question of a divorce."

Real Estate Board Backs Lincoln School Bond Issue

Other Groups To Support Measure In May 1 Election

Lincoln's Real Estate board approved unanimously at its meeting Wednesday to back the issuance of school building bonds coming up for public approval or disapproval in the general city elections, May 1.

Support of the bond issue has been given by the Lincoln council of Parent-Teachers association, the ladies' and men's division of the chamber of commerce, labor unions, the League of Women Voters, several service clubs, and others.

Watkins pointed out that if taxes were used in place of floating a school bond, the present rate of taxation would have to be doubled.

Some states, he said, are in favor of a sinking fund, whereby a specified amount of money is set aside each year that will care for the future needs of the school system.

Increased Taxes

Public apathy or even outright disapproval often accompanies this plan, he said, because it inevitably means an increase in the taxation on the assessed valuation of property.

"We can't wait until the children get to the doors of the schools" before something is done about the condition of those schools, Watkins said, it is therefore necessary that, in order to meet the future needs, the money be provided now.

Actually, money in the form of taxes will be saved if there is public approval of the 20-year bond issue to come up for vote May 1, he said.

Bonds Recallable

The bonds will be recallable at any time they are able to be paid off. Furthermore, the rate of interest on them is half that of the last bond issue and consequently will represent a lower cost to the taxpayer.

A report recently gathered by the national chamber of commerce pointed up the fact that good schools are conducive to good business and higher-standard-of-living residences.

Findings of the survey contradicted the antagonism of citizens who believe that schools bring down the value of property and contributed generally to lower living conditions.

Northeast Holds Honors Convocation

Safety Council Plans Study Victim Care

The Lincoln-Lancaster Safety Council took steps at its Wednesday meeting toward the formation of a five-man committee to study the problem involving the care of victims at the scene of an accident.

Much valuable time is lost, said Gifford Mullins, director of the council, between the time a person is picked up by the ambulance at the accident and when he reaches the hospital.

Two points were stressed at the council's meeting. They are:

1. People, unless they know what they are doing, should keep their hands off an injured person. Moving a person can result in a more serious injury.

2. The driving public should correct its tendency toward failure to give the right-of-way to emergency vehicles such as ambulances and fire trucks.

The council Wednesday also announced the beginning of a series of public driver training courses on May 8. The courses will beheld at University Place, College View and West O.

Mullins and Kenneth Flory, president of the council, discussed with other members the Central States Safety conference which they attended in Kansas City, Mo., last week.

G. R. Jewett, chairman, presided at the meeting.

Governor's Anti-Gambling Bill Sent Up

Committee Sends LB536 General File

License Revocation For Keeping Gaming Devices On Premises

Gov. Peterson's anti-gambling bill cleared its first hurdle Wednesday when it was sent to general file by the legislature's judiciary committee.

The bill (LB 536) provides for the revocation of any state-issued license if a gambling device is "willfully" kept on the licensed premises.

The committee cut from the bill the provision that licenses issued by a municipality could also be revoked.

It also exempted liquor licenses from application of the bill. The liquor commission now has authority to revoke licenses on gambling grounds.

Gov. Peterson and Attorney General Clarence Beck appeared at the committee hearing held previously to urge passage of the measure.

It was opposed by several persons, most of whom said they represented no organizations..

The committee also reported out a bill (LB 171) providing for appeal procedure from liquor commission decisions revoking or denying a license.

LB 304, aimed at banning "fire" sales, was another bill advanced to general file. The measure was pushed at the committee hearing by Omaha and Lincoln Better Business bureaus.

City Pay Hike Not Affected By Union Talk

...Mayor Says

The possible formation of a city employes union as an affiliate of the A. F. of L. has no bearing on the city's present intentions to give all such employes a $10 monthly blanket raise, according to Mayor Victor E. Anderson.

Conferences and discussions of such a move by the city employes have been underway for some time, but Anderson said that he has just recently heard of the union move.

While the group behind the formation of a union has gone so far as to elect temporary officers they have declined to comment on the issue at this time.

"There seems to be some fear among the employes," said one officer, "that they would lose their jobs if they joined the union."

"That is certainly not the case," said Mayor Anderson.

The city employes, he said, have the right to join a union if they wish, just as much as an employe in private business would have such a right.

He said also that the union talk was not the incentive for the pay raise to be considered at a special council meeting Thursday morning. That is an emergency matter, he said, as a result of the city's heavy loss of valuable personnel.

The city employes now have a city employes association but it is not a regular union. It operates as a social group and as a representative for the employes with the city council when necessary.

Both the police and firemen have unions but neither group is active at this time.

District Winners In Essay Contest Told By Dr. Sheets

Dr. C. H. Sheets of Cozad, president of the Nebraska State Medical association, Thursday announced the district winners of the state-wide essay contest sponsored by the woman's auxiliary of the medical group.

Dr. Sheets said that prizes will be awarded for the three leading essays written by high school students in each of the association's 12 councilor districts. The prizes are a $25 bond for first place; $10 cash for second place, and a certificate of merit for third place.

First, second and third place winners in the state contest will be selected from the winning district essays and will be announced next week, Dr. Sheets related. He added that the essays were written on the theme: "Medicine's Role in Preserving the American Way of Life."

The three winners of the district contests were:

First District

Second District

First, Lois Lathrop, Nebraska City; second, Jo Dingman, Lincoln high school, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Dingman; third, Barbara Garrens, Union.

Third District

Fourth District

First, Ellen Jean Thompson, Creighton (St. Luke Academy); second, Donna Weiding, Elgin (St. Boniface school); third, Ferdinand Schrage, Elgin (St. Boniface school).

Fifth District

Sixth District

First, Sheralee Hill, Polk; second, Joyce Metzgar, David City; third, Mary Ludl, Wahoo.

Seventh District

Eighth District

First, Robert Tushla, Atkinson (St. Joseph's Academy); second, Marde Birmingham, O'Neil (St. Mary's Academy); third, Ann Vinton, O'Neil (St. Mary's Academy).

Ninth District

First, Jo Ann Hald, Grand Island; second, Kathleen O'Donnell, Lexington; third, Arthur Rauch, Grand Island.

Tenth District

Eleventh District

First, Kay Anderson, Paxton; second, Shirley Slagle, Grant; third, Hugh Roche, Paxton.

Twelfth District

First, Sidney Derington, Scottsbluff; second, Maxine Mased, Scottsbluff; third, Linda Gassner, Scottsbluff.

Mrs. R. E. Garlinghouse, Lincoln, chairman of the auxiliary essay committee, stated that the district winners were selected by judges from more than 500 essays written by high school students in all parts of the state. She said that the judges for the state contest are Robert G. Simmons, Chief Justice, Nebraska Supreme court; Rev. Frank Court, Lincoln; and Prof. Ramey Whitney, University of Nebraska.

Dr. Sheets said the winner of the state contest, who will receive a $100 bond, will be a guest at the association's annual session in Omaha, April 30 to May 3. Second and third place winners, he continued, will receive $50 and $25 bonds, respectively.

Ordinances Given Council Approval

The city council Tuesday approved two ordinances on third reading and four ordinances on first reading.

The third reading ordinances were:

Water district in Logan avenue from Sixty-seventh to Seventieth.

Sewer district in Fair from Twenty-second to Twenty-fourth and Twenty-second, Whittier, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth from Fair to Potter.

Vacation of the alley between F and G and Forty-third and Forty-fourth streets.

Approved on first and second reading was an ordinance for the vacation of the alley between Second and Third and N and O.

Plans Approved

The council approved the plans and a $2,900 estimate of cost for creation of a sewer district in Gillan road from Fifty-eighth to Sixtieth and R from Fifty-eighth to Cotner boulevard.

An $8,000 estimate of cost was approved for the creation of a water district in Gillan road from Fifty-eighth to Sixtieth, R from Fifty-eighth to Cotner boulevard and Cotner from R to Sixieth.

Over 300 Attend Mother-Daughter Church Banquet

More than 300 persons attended the mother and daughter banquet at First Presbyterian church Tuesday night.

The banquet was served by the Men's club of the church with boys of the church serving tables.

Arranging the banquet were Mrs. Lawrence Liebers and Mrs. Walter Beggs, assisted by Mrs. Don Ellis, Mrs. Maurice Frazer, Mrs. Howard Welch, Mrs. Melvin Culp, Mrs. Truman McCoy and Mrs. Virgil Eno. Mrs. G. H. Penstone was in charge of reservations.

Carol Newell was toastmistress. Dr. C. Vin White gave the invocation.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Beggs, with Mrs. Ward Taylor at the piano. Vocal numbers were given by Miss Diane Knotek, accompanied by Miss Patsy Alvord.

Toast to the mothers was given by Miss Marilyn Hicks, and her mother, Mrs. Clifford Hicks, responded

Special Rule Admits Bill On Powdered Milk

The bill would remove the present restriction that powdered milk must be packed in 10 pound containers.

Sen. William Moulton of Omaha, who seeks the bill enactment, told the legislature he was embarrassed because of the lateness of the bill, the fact that he is employed by the only producer of the milk in the state and further that they have unintentionally been violating the law in furnishing the milk for the armed services.

The restriction in the state law came to the company's attention, he explained, when another firm in a nearby state was fined for a similar violation.

Salt Creek High Waters Recede

Minor Floods Brought By Heavy Rains

Low Areas South Of Lincoln Soaked; Some Roads Under

Flood waters, which spilled over the banks of Salt creek at several lowland points south of Lincoln early Wednesday, were receding slowly early Thursday morning.

Although the high water, brought on by steady rains ranging up to 1.70 inches, was reported to be several feet above normal, only minor flooding of lowland areas was expected.

Officials of the sanitary district sewage plant at Twenty-second and Theresa reported late Wednesday night that Salt creek was running at 26.5 feet, about 4.5 feet above the normal of 21.7. Flood stage is 35 feet.

Earlier Wednesday Salt creek was reported at 26.3 feet, having dropped from a high Wednesday afternoon of 26.8 feet.

Most of the flooding occurred at low-lying points from Hickman north to about seven miles south of Lincoln, with many roads partly under water. At Roca the creek reached 17.5 feet Wednesday morning. The high mark at that point during the May 8 flood last year was 24 feet.

Firth Gets Wet.

Salt creek was spilling over the banks at some spots Wednesday afternoon at the point where it crosses Highway 77, seven miles south of Lincoln. It was here that several motorists met their death in the May 8 flood.

Water also spilled over the east-west gravel road about a mile east of the Turnpike ballroom eight miles south of Lincoln. All railroad tracks running south were open.

Rain Reports

Some flooding was also reported east of Sprague on Olive Branch. No flooding was predicted on Wahoo or Oak creeks.

Precipitation reported in the county by the weather bureau for the 24 hours ending Wednesday noon:

Sprague	1.13	Agnew	1.11
Bennet	1.33	Raymond	1.02
Kramer	1.27

Police Get Calls

Lincoln police received over a dozen calls Wednesday from people who heard there was some flooding and wanted to know its extent. They were advised there was no immediate danger and no more calls were received after 3 p.m.

Two places in the city were visited by bolts of lightning during the Tuesday night storm. Lightning set fire to the roof of the William Fosler residence at 2027 North Twenty-ninth street. The fire department extinguished the blaze with little damage.

Another electrical charge literally exploded a Chinese elm in the yard of Edwin Glebe, 541 North Twenty-eighth. Splinters from the bursted tree were found a half block away.

No Flood Danger

At Wahoo rain fell slowly all night, totaling an inch and a quarter. Salt creek was up but there was no danger of it going over.

Syracuse reported no flood danger. About 1.27 fell there. York, which received about a half-inch, also was unalarmed. An inch and an eighth at Beaver Crossing was not enough to raise the Blue river to bank level.

Hastings Is Top City In Retail Sales

Grant, Hooker Lead Counties

The University of Nebraska business administration has reported that Hastings was the top city, and Grant and Hooker the top counties on the Nebraska retail sales map in March.

Dr. Edgar Z. Palmer, head of the college of business research department, said Hastings led eight reporting cities with a 27.2 per cent gain in sales over March, 1950, and 28.5 per cent gain over February. The average of the reporting cities for both comparisons was 10 per cent increase.

72.2% Gain

Grant and Hooker, reporting jointly, reported a sharp 72.2 per cent retail sales gain in March over the same month a year ago, and 25.9 per cent above February, 1951.

Suspect Released—The county attorney's office ordered a 49-year-old shoplifting suspect released Wednesday afternoon, following a session of questioning. Policewoman Hulda Stahnke said that the Lincoln woman was arrested shortly after two stores reported several petty thefts about noon Wednesday. Three plastic clothes pins and a pair of shoulder pads, worth a total of 67c were stolen from one store. Merchandise valued at $2.13 was taken from the other. It included two bolts of seam tape, some thread, a set of salt shakers and a roll of shelf paper.

Co-Op Leaders Brief Ag Seniors On Job Prospects

About 50 agriculture economics seniors and 25 cooperative leaders, managers and personnel men met Wednesday night for the purpose of acquainting the students with job opportunities in the cooperative field.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Hectic Texas Days

RANGER, Tex.—(AP) — An atmosphere of "mud, murder, and madness," characterized the great Ranger oil rush of more than 30 years ago. It is described in Boyce House's book "Roaring Ranger, The World's Biggest Boom," recently published by Naylor company of San Antonio.

Corn liquor was a dollar a drink. A hotel cot in a hallway cost $5 a night. The field's biggest well, the Norwood gusher, produced $$35,000 worth of oil in one day on a farm which had been bought for $5 an acre 11 years ago. A mule drowned in the mud of Main street.

Celebrities like Tex Richard, Tex Beach, Jess Willard, and John Ringling playe a part in the boom. House, author of 12 books, was a newspaperman in Ranger and nearby Eastland and Cisco for 10 years and writes from first-hand experience.

The Smana and Santiago Railroad of Haiti reaches neither Samana nor Santiago.

Stocks Drift, Finish Uneven

NEW YORK—(AP)—An early downward drift was checked in the stock market Wednesday and final prices stood just about even with those of the previous day.

Selective demand for oils, air lines, aircrafts and steels came to the rescue in mid-day, wiping out many soft spots that had accompanied a lag in buying interest.

The Associated Press 60-stock average was unchanged at $94.60. This was the third time in the last four trading sessions that no over-all change was recorded. Industrials advanced 20 cents on average, rails were down 20 cents and utilities down 10 cents.

Of the 1,137 issues traded, 448 declined and 424 advanced. New 1951 lows were touched by 64 stocks while 15 reached new highs.

Volume of trading picked up on the recovery and ran slightly ahead of Tuesday's session. Transfers totaling 1,520,000 shares against 1,420,000.

Grain Rally Hits Block

CHICAGO—(AP) — The grain market's brisk little rally of the past two sessions smacked into a road-block Wednesday. And the rally came to a dead halt.

All cereals except rye finished lower, but losses were not very large. Trading moved along at a rapid clip in the early part of the session, particularly in wheat, only to calm down later.

Wheat close ⅝ to 1¼ lower, corn ½ to 1¼ lower, oats ⅛ to ⅜ lower, rye (old style) ½ to 1 cent higher, soybeans unchanged to 2¼ lower, and lard 10 to 17 cents a hundred pounds lower.

Much of the selling was believed to represent profit-taking after Tuesday's sharp advance. Some analysts were disappointed, however, in the action of wheat. They had expected the bread cereal, having broken out of its weeks long trading rut Tuesday, would just keep going up.

Other analysts were cautioning against following the rise, contending that new crop wheat futures were already selling above the probable loan, based on the latest parity figures, on this year's crop. They figured the loan at $2.48 a bushel, Chicago basis.

Million Rail Workers Get A Pay Boost

6-Cent-Hour Hike For Non-Operating Group

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The government poked a hole in its own wage ceiling Wednesday.

Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston approved a 6-cent hourly increase for 1,000,000 non-operating railroad workers to offset a cost of living rise.

They would have been entitled to only 2 or 3 cents if the government's 10 per cent ceiling on wage increases had been applied tightly.

Effective April 1.

Johnston bowed to the arguments of a three-man panel that collective bargaining in the railroad industry is "unique" and requires special handling. It takes longer to negotiate a contract because of "lengthy and cumbersome" procedures of the railway labor act, said the panel, which was appointed by Johnston at President Truman's suggestion.

The 1,000,000 non-operating workers—clerks, mechanics, etc—will begin receiving their 6-cent hike next month. The increase becomes effective as of April 1, and all of the April boost will be added to May pay envelopes as rapidly as accounting machines can do the job, a spokesman for the carriers said.

The railroads estimate that the 6-cent increase will cost them $129,600,000 a year.

Many Affected Here

Non-operating employes—those not directly connected with train operations—with the Burlington railroad in Lincoln total about 1,800, including workers in the Havelock area.

List Winners In All-State Art Exhibit

The winning entries will be sent to schools throughout the state as part of a traveling art exhibit. More than 560 entries are on display at the auditorium and will remain there throughout this week.

Rites Held For Gen. Dawes

CHICAGO — (AP) — General Charles Gates Dawes, former vice president of the United States and onetime Lincoln man, who died Monday, was buried Wednesday.

Private funeral services were held at his home in Evanston followed by services at the First Congregational church in Evanston. A private burial in Rosehill cemetery followed.

Dawes, vice president under Calvin Coolidge during the term starting in 1925, died after he had spent Monday evening working on plans for General MacArthur day in Chicago. He died while quietly reading in his library.

Dawes was chairman of the board of the City National Bank and Trust company of Chicago.
